Had a Bad Day

Long time readers know I am open, honest, transparent, and crystal clear that I am human. I do not shy away from the fact that I make mistakes. There are times I fail at things. If you need any evidence just watch some of my streams on Twitch and Youtube. It is obvious that I am not successful one hundred percent of the time. I know there are some people who think I am a saint. I get emails, posts and messages where it is obvious some people think I am giant of the faith, video game industry, and broadcasters. I am human, and I make mistakes.

If you read my article on the corruption in the courts here in Memphis then you will have some idea what this relates to. Let me discuss some of the aftermath. Anger, depression, disbelief, disgust, thoughts of revenge and more. I am working through all of these right now. I am also trying to get the facts and opinions out there without seeking revenge on those who obviously wronged me. Being wronged is nothing new for me. I have been wrong quite a bit in my life. It has been really bad here in the Memphis, TN area. I had problems and issues in the Pacific Northwest as well. I am sure you can find times in your life where you have been wronged as well. Some people may have a long history of being wronged just like me. There are people who have been wronged way worse than I have. I completely realize that.

I wanted all ya'll to know that I get some of the same emotions and thoughts you do. I am not some super saint who says bless you when someone steals from me. I do not thank someone for lying to and about me. I don't want to shake the hands of someone abusing their power and causing me damage. I don't want to be nice to those who are hateful, evil, mean and nasty to me. I don't want help those who are incompetent and cost me a lot of money. I have to suppress those urges and do the right thing. I find things like working out help me get out the anger at dealing with so many liars, thieves, haters, and other toxic personalities.

Do not put me on a pedestal. I am far from perfect. I work through a variety of issues, problems, and flaws. There are days I want to challenge some people to five minutes in an UFC cage. I lose sleep over major problems that happen in my life. My mind won't stop cycling through things. I have trouble letting go when justice is not served. I eventually breathe, settle down, and realize that I need to trust God. I need to settle down. I do not need to ruin these companies, and organizations because of their abuse of power, lies, and more. I am trying to find that balance between educating the public to these crimes and seeking revenge. I have no desire to seek revenge against this cabal of corruption. God will judge them, and God will punish them. I do not even want to see their punishment. I want them to stop their abuse of power.

God bless,
Paul Bury

Support

I am not ashamed to announce I support President Trump. My hubby and kids also support President Trump. My mother, sister, and in-laws support President Trump. He has been amazing for the country. I cringe at the thought of how damaging Hillary Clinton would have been as president. I am totally awake on what a bad president Joe Biden would be. President Obama was horrible for America. Bill Clinton was bad for America. I know the super majority of the media hate President Trump. I know the super majority of the video game media hate President Trump. Family Friendly Gaming has long been the voice of diversity within video game media, and regular media. We do not let the toxic haters get their way in trying to destroy truth, reality, and history. President Trump has done amazing things for America that the Democrats said were not possible. President Trump brought jobs back to America that Hillary Clinton said were gone forever. Who was right? Who was wrong?

President Trump has stood up against the evil, vile, and wicked political correctness Nazis. President Trump has stood up against the toxic cancel culture. President Trump has stood up against those trying to redefine faith, history, words, and institutions. President Trump has stood up for religious liberty and freedom. President Trump has stood up against the politicizing of entertainment, news, and sports. President Trump has brought a lot of amazing ideas, and exposed the swamp of corruption. It makes sense the fat alligators in the swamp of corruption are mad at him. It makes sense why fake news is mad at him. He is not their brainwashed little lemming. He is not their puppet. He does not join them in rebellion against God.

A lot of politics comes down to one major concept. Do you believe you are better at deciding what to do with your own money than the government? Do you think you can take care of yourself or are you dependent on the government to tell you how to live? Do you want the freedom of choice to decide how to live your life without the government constantly intervening? Do you believe the government should give you the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness? Do you want the government to tell you what to do, when to do it, and how to do it?

Ultimately I support President Trump. He is not perfect. He makes mistakes. He gets angry at trolls constantly trying to rile him up. President Trump does way more good than he does bad. President Trump cares about America and its people. Even those toxic haters that are trying to destroy him every single hour of the day. Their lies expose their fear that President Trump is doing a good job and they constantly have egg on their face. Why can't they embrace love and support instead?

God bless,
Yolanda Bury

Mission Statement

Family Friendly Gaming (FFG) was created in March of the year of our Lord 2005 as the first ever Christian video game magazine. The goal of Family Friendly Gaming is to report on video games from the family view point. Family Friendly Gaming takes a fair and balanced approach to all news, previews, reviews, interviews, features, and other articles found within. The secular video game media reports mainly on the most morally bankrupt games and call those games good. The major secular media reports on the bad side of video games mainly. Most other Christian media outlets claim video games turn the player into a zombie, or they completely worship video games. Family Friendly Gaming reports the good, and bad side effects to video games. It is the belief of the owners that readers are smart enough to come to their conclusions without those in the media handing opinions to them. Those of us at Family Friendly Gaming believe by giving you the facts, you can decide for yourself. There are plenty of really good video games on the market that teach wonderful lessons. Both inside the Christian video game market, and from non-Christian video game developers. Family Friendly Gaming seeks out these video games to bring them to your attention. Since it is unknown before playing a game how family friendly it is; it is possible that this magazine will preview a game, and then the review will expose problems previously unknown. Family Friendly Gaming promises to always ask the question: "how God feels about certain video games." God's opinion on the matter is more important than any mere mortal. Which is why the rest of the industry does not influence FFG.

Contacting Christian Game Developers

Hey guys,

I'm trying to get in touch with Covenant Studios, the group who brought us BibleMan: A fight for faith. I can't find a website or anything. Any suggestions on getting in touch with them?

Thanks and God Bless,
Grayson

{Paul}: Grayson,

As far as I know they are completely gone and out of business. Tim Emmerich (Graceworks Interactive) may have some contact information because he also runs the CGDC (Christian Game Developers Conference). None of my contact information is good anymore.

Dark Side of Gaming - The Biggest Problems in Gaming Media

FamilyFriendlyGaming,

Thank you for the article Dark Side of Gaming - The Biggest Problems in Gaming Media. I wish more gaming media outlets brought up cool topics like you do. I love your point on video game media outlets being reliant on the video game companies. The video game companies are constantly trying to control the narrative and they hate diversity of thought. This is one the reasons I read everything Family Friendly Gaming releases because ya'll give me thoughts I cannot get anywhere else. I love the idea of video game media working together but I see that could be a bad thing. Look at what is happening at the NY Times. The snowflakes are being toxic to anyone who disagrees with their fanatical zealot far leftism. They are worse than Nazis. How could there be solidarity in that one thing and then diversity of thought in others?

-Bob

{Paul}: Bob,

Thank you so much for your words of encouragement. It is nice to bring some diversity to so many Borg drones in the video gaming media journalism who think they are better than everyone else because they rebel against God.

You make an excellent point on the brow beating, and forcing everyone into radical far left political ideology. Those that know history know that liberals have been doing that for a long time now. They always demand their way. They also attack anyone who is diverse from them. They always try and destroy those with better ideas instead of debating or discussing the ideas. They usually use extremist emotions to force others into their system using fear and intimidation. They are actually doing the same thing right now in the video game industry. The liberal tactics have not changed for decades. They use fear, intimidation to get people to conform to their extremism. They also will try and pretend you do not exist when you disagree with them on something. Then they will try and diminish and redefine your impact to marginalize you. From there they viciously attack to try and destroy. The interesting thing is Satan uses those exact same tactics. So we know who their father is.

I had not considered that potential problem. In some regards your point is probably why it is not happening today. Think about it. Too many in video game journalism are weak minded with no backbone. Which is why they cower to the video game companies and give them their way. Others would say they are acting like drug addicts giving their drug dealer whatever they want to get their next fix. There have been numerous vicious attacks on Family Friendly Gaming over the years. They have tried to pretend we don't exist and to diminish the impact we have made on the industry. All of the liberal tactics have been used against us over the years. They may already have solidarity and it is complete corruption to give the video game companies whatever they want whenever they want however they want. I had not considered that. Thank you for your amazing thoughts on the video game industry.

Love Your Streams

I love your Streams. They are amazing. You are a really good streamer. Family Friendly Gaming deserves a lot more views and viewers. You guys play all kinds of cool and wonderful games. Is there anything you won't play? I learn about so many games I never heard of thanks to Family Friendly Gaming. I love how your entire family does streams. I never know who I may see in a stream and that makes it cool. Most streamers specialize in one game, but you guys specialize in everything. That is why I love your streams. Plus you talk back to us. Too many other streamers ignore their fan base. I also love how real you guys are. I can tell when something annoys you. You are definitely not fake like some of those others streamers. Keep up the awesome work.
- Darla

{Paul}: Darla,

Thank you so much for your awesome, amazing, and fantastic words of encouraging words. We work really hard on our streams, and there are days when we are just exhausted at the end of the day.

We only play video games that are rated 'EC' to 'T'. We don't stream any 'M rated video games. We moved our FFG Haul videos to live streams recently and that helps everyone know what games might be coming in the near future. If we are excited about a game or franchise we will tell you in those FFG Haul videos that we want to play it. We keep adding videos to that page. As of right now here is the most recent videos:

<http://www.familyfriendlygaming.com/Videos/2020/FFG%20Haul-6.html>

We try to give everyone some attention who comes to our streams. As we continue to grow it is possible that we will not be able to respond to everyone. We will see how God blesses this hard work. We make plenty of mistakes in our streams. I want to constantly improve and I encourage everyone else here at FFG to get better with each video. I also listen to a plethora of ideas on how we can make our streams even better. We tell people all the time that we are human, and that means good and bad. So when there is some toxic chatter we will react in a real manner. Maybe we are sick and tired of trouble makers constantly trying to break the rules. Maybe we will answer the same question for the one thousandth time. We have danced all of the Just Dance video games we can dance to. There are none left. That is the answer to someone asking when we will release the next Just Dance video. There has been plenty of positive feedback on the FFG Dance videos though. Plus we have other dance games to record.

Lighting the World

It is always interesting to hear from people who claim to be Christian yet they do not want to talk about God, Jesus, or anything related to the Holy Bible. I find it interesting because that is exactly the opposite of what Jesus taught.

Matthew 5:13-16 "You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt loses its saltiness, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything, except to be thrown out and trampled underfoot.

14 "You are the light of the world. A town built on a hill cannot be hidden. 15 Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. 16 In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven.

Jesus was clear on how we are the light of the world. We are sharing our light with the rest of the world. When people hide their lights how are they giving glory to God? Why hide their lights in the first place? What good deeds do you do in the name of God?

If we are like Jesus then we will light the way as he lit the way. A Christian works on becoming more like Christ on a daily basis. We submit to God even when we do not want to. We obey God even when others are rebelling against Him.

John 8:12 When Jesus spoke again to the people, he said, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness, but will have the light of life."

Jesus shared his light with this dark world. We share our light through Family Friendly Gaming. How are you sharing your light? Or are you someone who hides it?

John 3:19-21 This is the verdict: Light has come into the world, but people loved darkness instead of light because their deeds were evil. 20 Everyone who does evil hates the light, and will not come into the light for fear that their deeds will be exposed. 21 But whoever lives by the truth comes into the light, so that it may be seen plainly that what they have done has been done in the sight of God.

God is very clear. Either we are with Him or against Him. Either we obey or rebel. Which will you choose? Do not expect evil people to embrace the light because they do not want their evil deeds known. They want to pretend they are a good person while they rebel against God and His guidelines for life. We face resistance all the time.

God Bless,
Paul Bury

PRAYER

Jesus,

I know that I am a sinner and need Your forgiveness. Nothing I can do of my own power will give me true joy. I believe that You died for my sins. I want to turn from my enslavement to sins, and repent of them. I now invite You to come into my heart and life. I want to trust and follow You as my personal Lord and Savior. I welcome the transforming power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

A new alliance has been forged at PM Studios

PM Studios is pleased to announce that Video Games Plus is now officially distributing PM Studios titles overseas. Video Games Plus is based in Ontario, Canada and is an established retailer and distributor with over 25 years under its belt.

Video Games Plus will help expand the PM Studios library into the Canadian regions and also offer *FREE International Shipping* for all orders over $50.00 CAD. Fans from all around the world will now have an easier and more convenient way to grow their PM Studios library!

By popular demand and to celebrate this new partnership our hit title Mercenaries Saga Chronicles will receive an exclusive limited time reprint!

Originally released physically in 2018, Mercenaries Saga Chronicles is a three-in-one compilation of the Mercenaries Franchise which includes Mercenaries Saga: Will of the White Lions, Mercenaries Saga 2: Order of the Silver Eagle, and Mercenaries Saga 3: Gray Wolves of War.

This re-release will only be available exclusively through Video Games Plus Online Store. Act fast because only 1000 units will be available.

Your decisions and mid-battle strategic choices will determine the fate of your squad of warriors. Your job is to cleverly move your squad across the play grid, attacking opponents as they come within range. Your effectiveness in battle is determined by character classes and equipment, which is under your complete control before heading into battle. With each victory, you'll gain experience and skill points, which you can use to level up your characters and boost their stats in preparation for the next fierce battle. Your choices both in and out of battle will determine how the story progresses and, ultimately, how it all ends!

Key Features:

Your Fate in Your Hands! – A massive campaign featuring over chapters will keep you busy for hours! But play smart – your decisions will guide story routes and endings!

Strength through Battle! – Success in battle allows you to upgrade your team and equipment. Master the battlefield to master the game!

Mana Is the Key! – You'll slowly accrue Mana throughout each battle, which will allow you to unleash devastating attacks!

Get Your SRPG Fix! – 3 games in one package aren't enough? Clear the game once to unlock more difficulty levels for limitless challenging gameplay!

Port Royale 4 beta out now on Steam

Publisher Kalypso Media and in-house developer Gaming Minds Studios announced that upcoming trading sim Port Royale 4 is now available in closed beta on Steam. Previously exclusive to customers pre-purchasing the game from the Kalypso Store, access to the beta has now been extended, granting all Steam pre-orders entry as well.

Available in English and German, the Port Royale 4 beta includes the game's tutorial, full Spanish campaign and newly added English-nation campaign, and the option to play as England or Spain in the game's Free Mode. Players are also invited to complete a survey to shape the game ahead of its full release on September 25th, 2020.

Port Royale 4 is available for pre-purchase on the Kalypso Store in two variants: a Standard Edition, which includes the base game on release and full access to the closed beta, and an Extended Edition, which adds a digital soundtrack and exclusive in-game bonus content.

Information:

In Port Royale 4, set sail and join the colonial powers of Spain, England, France and the Netherlands in their fight for supremacy of the Caribbean in the 17th century. Take control of a colony as a young and ambitious governor and learn what it takes to manage and grow a small settlement into a bustling trader city.

Develop production chains connecting multiple islands and create complex trade routes across the Caribbean, covering the ever-growing needs of multiple cities. Make use of the detailed sea map to avoid stormy weather regions, cliffs or shallow waters. Fulfill tasks for your nation's viceroy, earning more fame to unlock town buildings, ships and more. Conquer the cities of rival nations or hunt down their fleets with a letter of marque while also keeping a keen eye out for pirates and other privateers.

Introducing: naval battles! For the first time in series' history, combat encounters are turn-based, with up to 8 ships battling at once. Turn the tide with tactical captain manoeuvres to ensure a glorious victory each and every fight.

Features:

- Choose from four colonial powerhouses: England, France, Spain and the Netherlands, each providing different benefits and unique gameplay styles

- Four single player campaigns following each nation on a path to glory

- Appoint a leader from four different character classes: The Explorer, Merchant, Buccaneer and Pirate

- Establish and manage trade with 60 Caribbean cities in a huge game world

- Navigate cliffs, shallow waters and stormy weather regions to optimize your trade routes

- Choose from 50 buildings to produce goods such as rum and luxuries

- Construct town buildings with neighbourhood effects to optimize productivity and manage the happiness of your citizens

- Sail 18 historically authentic ships from the late 16th and 17th centuries

- Engage in tactical, turn-based naval battles with powerful captains

- Unlock licences, building permits, new buildings and ships by growing reputation within your chosen nation.

Britannic Patroness of the Mediterranean Releases

Indie developer and publisher Vintage Digital Revival is inviting patrons of all ages to an unforgettable journey aboard the Britannic, the sister ship of the infamous Titanic. Britannic: Patroness of the Mediterranean is a stunning recreation of the ship on STEAM™ offering you to explore the ship and discover details about its story, architecture and contributions to the First World War.

In The News Continued

HMHS Britannic has a fascinating story. She was the third ship in the Olympic Class tri, who, like her older sister ship, Titanic, was cheated of a promising career. Until now, no-one has seen her in this state since she sailed the Mediterranean. In this wonderful virtual museum and tour of the famous ship, you are courtly granted exclusive access to her rich story and architecture. Fans of ocean liners are in for a real treat as gems of historical nuggets surface. HMHS Britannic was taken over by the British government partway through construction and was used as a floating hospital during the First World War. Having never carried a paying passenger, she struck a mine near Greece and sank.

HMHS Britannic can now be explored in authentic onboard environments in a wonderful VR and non-VR version. Produced using Unreal® technology you can experience key areas of the fantastic vessel and witness a real-time sinking animation, as well. See if you can escape the ship before she sinks!?! You can roam the decks or use a free-for-all camera to fly around enjoying the rich details. Emphasis has been on historical accuracy and the title has been produced by a talented team of historians in a collaboration with wreck divers, archivists, and other experts to ensure history is brought to life in the most impressive way possible.

KEY FEATURES

- Fly-around camera mode
- A completely re-analyzed, playable real-time sinking mode
- A complete explorable exterior
- A unique history essay written by Britannic historian and wreck owner Simon Mills
- VR-Support
- Xbox® controller compatibility
- Info-boxes galore!

COVID Can't Stop Us - Let's Get Physical

Really, we should get Super-Duper Physical: New Full Size Arcade Game Announced

Bite the Bullet arcades are officially ready to go!

Bite the Bullet has a full line up of platforms for the hungriest arcade addicts with releases planned for Nintendo Switch, Xbox One, Playstation 4 and on physical honest, and honorable.

I learned something very important as a teenager. That lesson was – AGREE TO DISAGREE. That means I came across complete whack jobs who had radical far leftist opinions that were completely out of touch with reality. I would calmly discuss facts with them, and they would freak out with their emotions. Obviously they were unhinged. I learned a long tried and true concept from my parents. It was the phrase: "AGREE TO DISAGREE." A simple phrase. I went about my life, they went about their life and we both agreed to disagree. They were not going to convince me of their fantasy and attempts to redefine; and I was not going to convince them to join me in reality and deal with facts. We both went about our business and it worked beautifully.

Nowadays the liberal culture is trying to destroy everyone that disagrees with them. How far off are they from abusing their power and throwing us into concentration camps? All because we do not march lock, step, and barrel with them and their fanaticism. How far off are they from wanting to exterminate anyone who does not say what they want, where they want, and when they want? Why must they try to destroy the lives of those they disagree with? Why are they being so evil, vile, and wicked? Why are they spreading so much hatred, misery, and pain? What is their problem? Why are they are so arrogant? When will the majority of Americans reject their evil?

It is obvious that I disagree with what the snowflakes and liberal culture is doing to those they disagree with. I am appalled at their hatred, and evil deeds. I am repulsed at how they try and ruin the lives of those they disagree with. I have spoken out to wake up arcades.

The physical arcades are being distributed internationally and numbered for an exclusive run of 50 units. Each unit is handcrafted by the artisans at Artcade.

- Limited series of 50 worldwide
- Comes with a certificate of authenticity signed by the artist
- Mega Resolution printed game panels
- Parsol Bronze tinted glass (4mm) for better contrast
- 2.1 sound system (2x50W + 1x170W)

"We are so excited to share the arcade that we've created with the world," Nick Mann, joystick maestro, says. "We have poured countless hours into creating something we are incredibly proud of, and are so excited to show everyone what we've created with Artcade."

Agree to Disagree

Family Friendly Gaming, the industry leader in covering the family friendly video games is continuing to be the voice of diversity in the gaming media, and media at large. What is wrong with some of ya'll? Why is there this attempt to destroy the lives of those you disagree with? I understand snowflakes cannot handle hearing any thoughts, words, or opinions diverse from their own. This is getting out of hand. Things have gotten so backwards in America with the liberal culture trying to redefine everything. I recently read some lady constantly attacked a well known dictionary house to redefine racism to fit the extremely radical far left's out of touch with reality opinion. The dictionary house had no backbone and gave in. They were tired of being bothered. Now we can't even trust dictionary places to be accurate, genuine, real,

America and turn from that evil practice. Ultimately I practice what I preach. I agree to disagree. I hope they are mature enough to follow my example, but I doubt it.

I hope you have a wonderful rest of your day.

We Would Play That!

There are all kinds of cool family friendly video game ideas out there. This column features ideas of video games we would play. We hope games like these are created in the near future. Can you make it happen?

Know what would be extremely interesting and educational to play in a video game? Stories of the down trodden. Stories of those who have been abused by those in education. Stories of those who dealt with corruption from the courts. Those that have been damaged by powerful people in the media. None of that snowflake garbage that some guy smiled at her and it made her feel uncomfortable. We are talking about real harm and real damage. Things like when that Democrat Congressman murdered his intern with whom he was having an affair with. Or how Bill Clinton abused his position of power and took advantage of Monica Lewinski. More gamers need to see the toxic damage done by long term abusers.

There have been plenty of video game companies bragging they want to deal with real world issues that can enact change. Then they grab some fake news story and do a game propagating a lie. If you want to deal with real issues then deal with real issues. Why not make a game on someone with a mental illness? Show the sacrifices their families go through trying to care for them. Why not show the abuse of the system by people in the hospitals? Show a family dealing with the lies of a billing office who is completely incompetent and constantly makes billing errors. Maybe show a worker in an insurance company having to investigate the lies and false claims of someone in the billing office of a women's hospital for example. Another great idea is to show the corrupt judge who treats lawyers better than real people. Show judges that violate the rights of the people. Show how the corrupt courts treat someone as guilty until they prove their innocence. Show how the courts violate the right to a speedy trial again and again.

This is the kind of a game(s) we would love to play. There are so many ideas here for wonderful video games that could enact real change, and help millions of people all over the world. These are not fake news stories either. They are real and genuine. They are authentic, accurate, and true. These are the kinds of stories that could be done in a family friendly fashion too.

Jonah 1:13-16

13 Instead, the men did their best to row back to land. But they could not, for the sea grew even wilder than before. 14 Then they cried out to the Lord, "Please, Lord, do not let us die for taking this man's life. Do not hold us accountable for killing an innocent man, for you, Lord, have done as you pleased." 15 Then they took Jonah and threw him overboard, and the raging sea grew calm. 16 At this the men greatly feared the Lord, and they offered a sacrifice to the Lord and made vows to him.

REVIEWS

Welcome to our reviews section. We have a couple of rules when it comes to our reviews. The reviewer must give an honest accounting as to why he/she liked or disliked something. No fanboy reviews allowed here, or at the very least they are discouraged (after all everyone has their own personal biases, likes, and dislikes). Everyone also has different tolerances, and weaknesses - we strive to keep that in mind in our reviews. We have been burned ourselves by reviews saying a certain game is great, only to be greatly offended by that game. Reviewers must be kind in their reviews. A game may be horrible, but there is no need to degrade the developer, publisher, artists, etc. There is also no need for name calling.

We review video games on five separate criteria: graphics, sound, replay/extras, gameplay, and family friendly factor. Review scale can be found here. The editor in chief coordinates reviews to have as much cohesion as possible. We are very open about the way we review video games. Each section starts with a 75 score, and can earn or lose points based on the content of the game, using our grading scale (found on the website).

Parents, please do not take any of our reviews as gospel. Different people are offended by different things. We work hard here at Family Friendly Gaming to discern the good from the bad in the teachings of each different video game. What may seem harmless to our reviewer(s), could be a big deal to you. We encourage you to spend time with your children and investigate each video game yourself. Each review is written with you in mind, and we try to mention each problem we find. We are not perfect, and miss things from time to time - just as the ESRB does. The ESRB rating is merely a start, and since they ignore many of the moral and spiritual factors important to parents all across America, we do our small part to fill that huge void. We are a small ministry and your prayers are so very important to us.

Questions, suggestions, comments, or got a game you would like for us to review? Then please email us at: Gamereviews@familyfriendlygaming.com.

Paper Mario The Origami King

SCORE: 72

Did you watch the Twitch streams I did of Paper Mario The Origami King on the Nintendo Switch? If not please click here. I am very thankful Family Friendly Gaming had the money to purchase Paper Mario The Origami King after the failures from their PR and Marketing firm. The battle system in Paper Mario The Origami King is very strange. We line up the enemies and then get to attack them.

The whole concept in Paper Mario The Origami King is the invading origami characters are battling the normal flat characters. We must fight off the origami characters to save the paper world. Confetti plays a major role in Paper Mario The Origami King. We use it to plug holes in the paper world. We get confetti from enemies, trees, flowers, bushes, and more. Our weapons in Paper Mario The Origami King break over time. Thankfully there are plenty of coins to purchase new ones. There are elemental shrines and temples in Paper Mario The Origami King. They are called Vellumentals in Paper Mario The Origami King. These major monsters and bosses are treated like false gods in Paper Mario The Origami King. Expect plenty of Easter religious indoctrination and proselytizing in Paper Mario The Origami King. I did not find the same amount of content reinforcing the religious beliefs of the super majority of Americans. Nintendo has been known to be hostile to Christians for decades. There really is no point to battling the enemies unless you need some confetti or are on a mission to eliminate all of them in an area. We get items that make us more powerful after beating certain bosses. We fight some strange ones in Paper Mario The Origami King too. If you can line up the enemies before a battle then you can avoid taking any damage.

There are parts of Paper Mario The Origami King I enjoyed and parts that were not much fun. The storyline is typical Paper Mario. The origami concept is a nice twist on the franchise. - Paul

Trials of Mana

SCORE: 59

Did you watch the Trials of Mana live streams I did on Twitch? If not make sure to follow us here. So many of the games we review are also live streams with interactions on our Twitch channel. After playing the Collection of Mana I knew what to expect from Trials of Mana. We pick our characters and play through this fantasy world where our character wants revenge against a wizard who messed with his kingdom. Trials of Mana is a role playing game where we see the enemies. It is rare we can avoid the enemies though. Once our team gets close enough we must battle the enemies in a circular area until our team or their team is no longer able to fight. Trials of Mana gives gamers a variety of moves to use. Mainly we have attack, and charged attack. We also have skills that can be used when charged up. Enticement to lust, lack of attire, magic, and religious indoctrination of believing in a goddess are heavy in Trials of Mana. We choose the path of light or darkness when we level up our character's class. I personally prefer to take the path of light over darkness. Even if the dark side has cookies. It is easy to see on the ground when an enemy character is charging up an attack. Sometimes we can stun them before they launch said attack. There is nice music in Trials of Mana. We get some voice acting and I recognized at least one voice actor in Trials of Mana. Language can be a bit of an issue with Trials of Mana. Many of the characters in Trials of Mana sound less than intelligent. There are some cringe moments and some glitches in this action adventure role playing video game. The story in Trials of Mana is slow to reveal itself. It takes twenty to twenty-five hours to beat Trials of Mana. For this is a bit of a disappointment considering the price of this game. Gameplay can get a bit redundant and the puzzles are pretty simple. The religious indoctrination in Trials of Mana is extremely lame and really hurts this game. - Paul

Taiko no Tatsujin Nintendo Switch Version

SCORE: 86

I got into trouble by having a bad attitude thanks to Fortnite. My dad wanted me away from the game for some time, and suggested I play Taiko no Tatsujin Nintendo Switch Version for a review. I was not very keen on the idea at first. Then I got into Taiko no Tatsujin Nintendo Switch Version. This bright and colorful drumming video game is pretty fun. Taiko no Tatsujin Nintendo Switch Version also has some great music.

Want to know something else Taiko no Tatsujin Nintendo Switch Version has in it? There are songs from other franchises like Splatoon and Kirby. There are over seventy songs in Taiko no Tatsujin Nintendo Switch Version. If that is not enough to pique your interest in a purchase twenty rhythm mini games. We can play Taiko no Tatsujin Nintendo Switch Version on different difficulties.

Taiko no Tatsujin Nintendo Switch Version also includes

The best word to describe Taiko no Tatsujin Nintendo Switch Version is fun. The motion controls on the Joy Cons work great. The music is great. The graphics are bright and colorful. Multiple family members can enjoy Taiko no Tatsujin Nintendo Switch Version at the same time. Because of prices Family Friendly Gaming purchased a Japanese version of Taiko no Tatsujin Nintendo Switch Version. Thankfully it works perfectly on our US based Nintendo Switch.

Want to know how to get good at Taiko no Tatsujin Nintendo Switch Version? The key to playing Taiko no Tatsujin Nintendo Switch Version is all in your timing. Once you get the timing that goes along with the beat then you will be jamming man. I love the Splatoon and Kirby connection in Taiko no Tatsujin Nintendo Switch Version. Four family members can jam at the same time in Taiko no Tatsujin Nintendo Switch Version.

I am so glad I played Taiko no Tatsujin Nintendo Switch Version. I am so glad I gave this drumming game a chance. I played Taiko no Tatsujin Nintendo Switch Version without the drum set. There is a drum set that comes with this game, but that version is more expensive. I hope to see more games like Taiko no Tatsujin Nintendo Switch Version in the near future. There are not enough drum based games on the market.

Let's Sing Country

SCORE: 57

I wanted to like Let's Sing Country so badly. I love country music. I love singing along to country songs. Country music has been very under represented in the video game industry. You know another genre that has been really under represented in the video game industry? Christian music has been under represented as well. We have plenty of rap, rock, dance, and other songs in the video game industry.

Tape, Juke Box, and LS World Contest. There are thirty songs in Let's Sing Country. In my opinion there are few good songs in Let's Sing Country. I also noticed it is very hard for a woman to sing a mans song in Let's Sing Country. The opposite is also true. These problems really hurt Let's Sing Country from start to finish. Leveling up your avatar in Let's Sing Country is pretty cool.

We can play Let's Sing Country with a microphone, smart phone or a headset. None of these worked really well and scoring was not always accurate. Let's Sing Country has a bit of lag in it that costs players badly. Some other issues with Let's Sing Country are bad language, blood, violence, lack of attire, enticement to lust, bad attitudes, bad lessons, and more. We see the music videos in the background of Let's Sing Country.

When I first started playing Let's Sing Country I was so confused. The words are on the bottom of the screen. The words are also in the middle moving from the right to left. When the words hit the left line we are supposed to sing them. It is harder to read those words. It is difficult to tell when to start singing from the words on the bottom of the screen. This also confused me as I kept visually swapping between the two trying to get the song right.

If you can hit where the notes need to be (according to this game) then it does not matter what you are singing. My hubby made some incoherent sounds and scored better than actually singing the song with the right words. Even though there are multiple modes and up to four family members can play Let's Sing Country, I find little replay due to the bad scoring system. I recommend families pass on this thirteen and older only singing video game.

AFL Evolution 2

SCORE: 85

Did you catch the live stream Teen Gamer and I did of AFL Evolution 2? If you missed it then please click here. We had an amazing game. I will not spoil the ending of it for you. Go and watch it for a great video. We thought this game was all about Rugby and realized it was drastically different. The field is a giant circle, we can only run so far, and can get goals or behinds.

The modes in AFL Evolution 2 are Single Match, Online, Career, Fan Hub, AFL Gameday, Competition and Training. Once we learned how to play AFL Evolution 2 we had a blast with this sports video game. There is quite a bit of strategy in playing AFL Evolution 2. AFL Evolution 2 controls really well and even gives players multiple control modes in terms of kicking in a goal. Or at least trying to kick one in. I am so thankful Family Friendly Gaming had enough money to purchase a copy of AFL Evolution 2 on the Playstation 4 (PS4). AFL Evolution 2 can also be found on the PC and Xbox One. The copy FFG purchased of AFL Evolution 2 came from Australia. I am so thankful games like AFL Evolution 2 are not region locked. No intelligent video game publisher in America would pick up AFL Evolution 2. Lame I know. I really appreciate the commentary in AFL Evolution 2. They were cool to listen to. The graphics in AFL Evolution 2 are fantastic. I love how good the stadiums and fans look.

Players are tackled in AFL Evolution 2. This game expects you to understand the concepts of this sport. Which I did not. Teen Gamer did not. Even though we had no clue how this sport works we were able to figure it out and have fun. I hope this franchise continues. I love how AFL Evolution 2 is in the physical copy format. There are enough modes in AFL Evolution 2 to warrant the price of the purchase. Over eighty teams is pretty cool too. - Paul

Knowledge is Power

SCORE: 70

Did you enjoy the live stream we did of Knowledge is Power on Youtube? If you missed it please click here. Teen Gamer and I had a blast playing Knowledge is Power. Princess and Yolanda came over near the end to make it quite the event. This is a quiz show with some twists to it. The twists are nothing new though. We pick something that will mess over another player. We can freeze them, goop them, send over bombs, bugs, and more. Two to six family members over the age of thirteen can play Knowledge is Power at the same time.

The downside to Knowledge is Power is we must use some other device to play this game. We can use smart phones and tablets. An app needs to be downloaded and installed on your device to actually be able to play Knowledge is Power on the Playstation 4. I wish there was a way to play on just the screen personally. We ran into one device having an issue with the installation of the app for Knowledge is Power.

There are over five thousand questions in Knowledge is Power. What we get and what we see can be completely safe for families or contain offensive content. The issues within Knowledge is Power are drugs, bad language, lack of attire, enticement to lust, blood, violence, and more. Families can play multiple games and never run into any offensive content. I wish Knowledge is Power had some family friendly mode that kept this game that way.

Knowledge is Power is a lot of fun. That was our experience with this trivia game. Knowledge is Power claims to have an online mode but we could not figure out how to get it working. The game syncs to a local phone. Unless someone is locally there I am not sure how they would play. The points you score in the main game give you a head start on the final pyramid round that will determine the winner. I found many of the questions in Knowledge is Power to be easy. - Paul

Star Trek Voyager Season Three

Daredevil The Complete Third Season

SCORE: 49

SCORE: 43

It took me close to two years to get back to Star Trek Voyager Season Three. For those that remember I purchased the entire Star Trek Voyager series, and as fine it. Star Trek Voyager Season Three promotes the arts and culture.

Star Trek Voyager Season Three tries to walk a tightrope on women being strong and vulnerable. It never really fits. The sexism against men continues in Star Trek Voyager Season Three.

I get time I watch a season and review it. I vaguely remember this season from when it aired on television. At some point in the past I stopped watching this show and did not finish it off. This is now my opportunity to watch all of Star Trek Voyager and see where the show went.

The female captain breaks her own commands all of the time. I noticed other female characters are also allowed to break the rules and do their own thing, while men are held at a higher standard. Contacting spirits is a part of Star Trek Voyager Season Three as well.

The issues families can and will have with Star Trek Voyager Season Three are violence, blood, murder, sex outside of marriage, lack of attire, enticement to lust, lying, deceit, false gods and goddesses, and more. Star Trek Voyager Season Three is anti-Christian, anti-conservative, anti-capitalism, pro evolution, and pro science as liberals de-

The cliff hanger in Star Trek Voyager Season Three show us the Borg finally. We see the Borg in an entirely different light though. The storyline in that last episode of Star Trek Voyager Season Three makes little to no sense to me. Star Trek Voyager Season Three makes a statement about prisons that shows how much the radicals on the far left care about victims (answer none). The doctor can now walk around the ship and go on away missions.

Captain Sulu is celebrated in Star Trek Voyager Season Three. There is an interesting episode related to going backwards in time. Q is also a part of Star Trek Voyager Season Three. Most of the known guest stars and/or storylines are used in Star Trek Voyager Season Three in some way shape or form. It felt like a real chore to watch Star Trek Voyager Season Three on DVD. I am thankful I am done with it. Maybe next year I will watch Season Four.

First and foremost I am extremely bummed out I could not get a physical copy version of Daredevil The Complete Third Season. I had to watch this show on Netflix because it is not coming to the much sought after and very respected physical copy format. Netflix can pull this show at any time and it will never be viewable ever again. That is really lame. That is why I like the physical copy format of entertainment.

The Complete Third Season. Which mirrors real life in how the FBI treated Donald Trump when he was elected president and had not taken the oath yet. Interesting how entertainment mirrors real life.

Daredevil The Complete Third Season has blood, death, torture, murder, bad language, lack of attire, enticement to lust, corruption and more. Daredevil The Complete Third Season has attacks on God, Christians, conservatives, morals, and ethics. It should not surprise us there are so many angry, hate filled people in the world when entertainment like Daredevil The Complete Third Season educates them to be that way.

Daredevil The Complete Third Season goes darker than previous seasons. Matt is injured and lost most of his powers thanks to getting a building dropped on him. He neglects his friends for most of the season. He is also determined to kill Kingpin. The FBI gets corrupted in Daredevil

SPOILER ALERT! In the end of Daredevil The Complete Third Season he decides not to kill Kingpin. The logic behind this fail me on so many levels. Daredevil knows Kingpin will get out of any prison. Daredevil knows Kingpin knows his secret identity. How can he trust him? All because the Kingpin's wife says stop. She is almost as evil as he is. She gets to stay free as well. That will not bode well in the future.

I am glad that I have completed this show. I hope it stays retired. I do not know if Disney+ will bring it back. Since Disney is paying radical far leftist liars money to make fake news following franchises I am not sure I would ever pay them money. Maybe if they release physical copies of future seasons I would consider it. I don't know. I am pleased this show is done. It was way too nasty. Daredevil The Complete Third Season is not for kids in any way, shape or form.

Kurt Warner's Arena Football Unleashed

SCORE: 74

Did you catch the Twitch stream we did of Star Wars Masters of Teras Kasi on the original Playstation? If you missed it please click here and be sure to follow our Twitch channel. This fighting game reminds me of the Battle Arena Toshiden franchise. We have 3D areas, weapons, and fight it out until there is a ring out, time out, or a character loses all of their health.

Star Wars Masters of Teras Kasi contains violence, lack of attire, enticement to lust, religious teachings of the force and more. I found myself more aggressive and quicker to anger after playing Star Wars Masters of Teras Kasi on the Playstation. Parents keep that in mind when you decide if you will let your teenagers play Star Wars Masters of Teras Kasi.

I am a bit disappointed in how few fighters there are in Star Wars Masters of Teras Kasi. There are only thirteen fighters in Star Wars Masters of Teras Kasi. Many of them are lame like guards. Where is Yoda? Star Wars Masters of Teras Kasi has pretty sluggish controls. The lag between launching an attack and actually doing it is way too long.

There are also glitches in Star Wars Masters of Teras Kasi where the game could not decide who gets to have their attack work. Mid attack the enemy may hit you and knock you out of it.

The good news surrounding Star Wars Masters of Teras Kasi is the prices are pretty low for this game now. There were plenty that sold in the Christmas 1997 season that families should be able to find this game pretty easily. I am thankful Family Friendly Gaming had the money to purchase Star Wars Masters of Teras Kasi on the original Playstation.

Playing with others is way better than playing the computer in Star Wars Masters of Teras Kasi. The computer is way more skilled at this fighting game than I ever will be. If you like playing bad games from the past check this one out. - Paul

Did you catch the live stream Teen Gamer and I did of Kurt Warner's Arena Football Unleashed? If you missed it please click here. This Arena Football based video game is in the same style as the NFL Blitz video games. Kurt Warner's Arena Football Unleashed is a bit tamer on the cheerleaders enticement to lust, and the violent aspect of smashing players after tackling them. Which we appreciate here at FFG.

Kurt Warner's Arena Football Unleashed includes all seventeen Arena Football League teams, stadiums, a play editor, no penalties, power up mode, four local players and more. The teams consist of six players and that ball is live at all times. I missed a field goal picked up the ball and scored a touchdown. Kurt Warner's Arena Football Unleashed lets you do things like that.

Kurt Warner's Arena Football Unleashed is extremely pass heavy and it is hard to run. The good news is you can score from anywhere on the field at any time. It does not take much to break away with a receiver and you are in the end zone. The mascot names are cool and different. Kicking can be challenging since the gauge modes so quickly. I love being given the one point conversion.

We had fun playing Kurt Warner's Arena Football Unleashed on the original Playstation. Players can seriously rack up high scores if they want to in Kurt Warner's Arena Football Unleashed. The action in Kurt Warner's Arena Football Unleashed is fast paced. There are some extra movies that can be unlocked as they are seen in the game.

I am thankful I had the money to purchase Kurt Warner's Arena Football Unleashed on the original Playstation. I was able to find Kurt Warner's Arena Football Unleashed for under five dollars before paying all of the massive government taxation. Kurt Warner put his name on a decent product that families can enjoy. The slogan for Kurt Warner's Arena Football Unleashed is Brawl Between The Walls. It certainly felt that way playing this football video game. - Paul Star Wars: Squadrons will offer rich cosmetic and gameplay customization options with rewards and bonuses that are earned solely through gameplay. As players move up the ranks, they'll earn components such as weapons, hulls, engines and shields to customize the performance of their starfighters; and gain cosmetic items to customize their cockpit, ship exteriors, and appearance of their pilot. In addition, players will be able to squad up with their friends and play against others, regardless of platform, as cross-play will be supported on Xbox One, PlayStation 4, PC, and VR.

"A Tale of Paper's slow-paced and deep gameplay is what makes it special", explains the Open House Games team. "We mix puzzles and platforming but we also throw in some suspense and bits and pieces of walking simulation in this mix. It is also worth noting that this is no 2D platformer. The camera scrolls laterally, but players can roam in its world in any direction".
