Age of Emperor's New Clothes

I get a variety of interesting thoughts in some very diverse places. Maybe I am in the shower, or driving somewhere and something extremely fascinating hits me. The column this month is one of those light bulb moments. The current worldly modern day American culture is a brand new age of the Emperor's New Clothes. Reality is under attack from those who embrace fantasy. There is so much entertainment that someone should have projected this would be the predictable outcome. Someone points out that letting young children decide if they are male or female is dangerous. They are viciously attacked by those who care more about fantasy than reality. The Emperor is standing there naked and they want everyone to act like he is wearing the most amazing clothes.

Truth is being replaced by lies. Those that embrace truth are under constant threat and attack from those who embrace an age of the Emperor's new clothes. Isn't it bad enough that they are mentally ill enough to embrace fake or real? Why must they try and force the rest of us into their radical, extremism? Isn't it bad enough they harm themselves? Now they must harm the rest of us too? I disagree with their brow beating, truth shaming, and reality hating people acting this way. I choose to stick with truth and reality. They can call me a child or a fool for sticking with truth and reality. That is fine with me.

What bothers me is people with no backbone back off when they are viciously attacked for speaking the truth in love. I disagree with those openly rebelling against God. I disagree with those embrace fantasy over reality. I disagree with those being evil, vile, and wicked toward anyone standing up for the truth in love. With that said I am not making personal attacks on them. I am not demanding they be fired from their jobs for their out of touch with reality radical beliefs. I am not wishing them any harm either. I want them to embrace truth and publicly acknowledge it. I want them to turn from their evil ways. I want them to repent and live in obedience to God. Notice the difference there? I want them to be better. I do not believe in brow beating them. I do believe in shining the light of truth on their deeds like this column is doing.

What about you? Where do you stand on this? Do you wither away when haters demand you embrace fantasy over reality? Do you stand up for the truth even though you face evil, vile, and wicked persecution for it? What are things you can do to stand up for truth, love, and reality in your life? How often do you address this issue in your life and mention it to others?

God bless,
Paul Bury

Mis-Management

Our family ran across a wonderful example of a place being mis-managed. Peter got a job at a local fast food restaurant. Problems began to ensue almost immediately. We decided to let him try the job and see how things went. He had to call repeatedly to get access to the schedule. The schedule was not up when it should have been. Then the schedule was not adhered to as it was posted. Multiple nights he had to stay past his shift because other employees were a problem. There were fights at the restaurant so safety became a concern.

There were fights

Imagine you are working on a Sunday and the schedule is supposed to be posted for the upcoming week (Monday through Sunday), and it is not posted. That means you have no idea if you are supposed to come in and open the next day. Should you appear at work or not the next day? If so what time does your shift start and end? This experience really focuses on how important it is to have clear communications. Without them then you do not know what is expected of you. To make matters worse other employees left messes for Peter to clean up. He had to fix their messes or get written up. How frustrating is that?

Another aspect of that position that confused Peter was the manager and regional manager would give conflicting instructions. Talk about being in between a rock and a hard place. Which one do you obey? Which one do you disobey? Too many chiefs and not enough Indians comes to mind here. People were quitting and getting fired left and right at that location.

We were going to eat there and support him even though we do not eat out much because we do not have the money to do so. That was until he told us about the cockroach infestation at that restaurant. The Health Inspector was writing the place up. Would you want to work somewhere that might get shut down because of that? Would you want to eat somewhere knowing of the disease factor eating at a place like that?

We are not big on quitting. There are just some situations where you can see you will not make it better. There are places in life where you have to walk away. That is what Peter is planning on doing. We completely support him because the work environment is way too toxic. Have you ever had a similar experience in your life?

God bless,
Yolanda Bury

MISSION STATEMENT

Family Friendly Gaming (FFG) was created in March of the year of our Lord 2005 as the first ever Christian video game magazine. The goal of Family Friendly Gaming is to report on video games from the family view point. Family Friendly Gaming takes a fair and balanced approach to all news, previews, reviews, interviews, features, and other articles found within. The secular video game media reports mainly on the most morally bankrupt games and call those games good. The major secular media reports on the bad side of video games mainly. Most other Christian media outlets claim video games turn the player into a zombie, or they completely worship video games. Family Friendly Gaming reports the good, and bad side effects to video games. It is the belief of the owners that readers are smart enough to come to their conclusions without those in the media handing opinions to them. Those of us at Family Friendly Gaming believe by giving you the facts, you can decide for yourself. There are plenty of really good video games on the market that teach wonderful lessons. Both inside the Christian video game market, and from non-Christian video game developers. Family Friendly Gaming seeks out these video games to bring them to your attention. Since it is unknown before playing a game how family friendly it is; it is possible that this magazine will preview a game, and then the review will expose problems previously unknown. Family Friendly Gaming promises to always ask the question: “how God feels about certain video games.” God’s opinion on the matter is more important than any mere mortal. Which is why the rest of the industry does not influence FFG.

On money and humility

Dear Mr. Bury,

In the newest issue of your magazine, you made a very smart move by having your wife, a licensed cosmetologist, review the game "Barbie: Jet, Set, and Style!". You also talked about money and humility. Here are my thoughts on both topics.

The best part about capitalism is that empowers ordinary people by allowing them to reject substandard products and services. However, finding and utilizing first-class products and services is not always worth the trouble. When I ride city buses, I always make it a point not to sit in the front seats reserved for elderly/disabled people. And when I ride roller coasters at an amusement park, I take whichever row appears to have the shortest line instead of insisting on riding in the front row each time.

But not everyone thinks like me. There are people who feel that they are entitled to first-class products and services at all times and at all costs. We call those people spoiled brats. They are almost impossible to deal with and we try to avoid them if possible, because they simply cannot stop complaining.

Not all complaints are bad. Sometimes complaints are justified and can be helpful, in the case of magazines like Consumer Reports that help people to get the highest quality products and services for the lowest price. But many spoiled brats cross the line into character assassination by ridiculing those who use products and services that they see as second-class. In schools, they are often bullies who pick on people for stupid reasons. In journalism, they often compile the "worst-dressed" lists for the Academy Awards ceremony, and other formal gatherings.

For every spoiled brat out there, there are several more people who are personally perfectly content with relatively ordinary products and services and saving money, but feel compelled to purchase products or services they don't need or even want just to avoid social ridicule.

In the case of excess spending, this trend can be counteracted in two ways. On a small scale, you can limit the number of friends you have, and choose friends that like you not for what you consume, but for who you are. On a larger scale, you can share stories of people who are humble and accept ordinary lifestyles even when they had the ability to do otherwise. Here are a few examples:

Woody Hayes was the head coach of Ohio State University's football team from 1951 to 1978. In his 27 years as a head coach, he only accepted one pay raise, and when offered additional pay raises, he asked that those pay raises go to his assistants instead. He walked to and from work for several years. Although credited with turning OSU's football program from the "Graveyard Of Coaches" into a national powerhouse, he didn't think he was a talented coach, but that his success was because he was lucky enough to have talented players. And I think he made a valid point.

Audrey Hepburn preferred costume jewelry to the real thing just because costume jewelry is cheaper. Also, she was briefly engaged to marry a man named James Hanson. When they broke off the engagement, she instructed the designers of the wedding dress, the Fontana Sisters, to give the dress to an Italian girl who would never be able to afford such a dress.

humbled himself in a very unique way. In one of his car commercials, he starts off by showing several models of the LeBaron series of cars, along with their prices and features.

Then he takes complete responsibility for any shortcomings his cars may have by saying "If you don't agree they're the best Chryslers ever made, the very best America has to offer at a sensible price, then I'm in the wrong business.". And he closes with, "If you can find a better car, buy it!". I would never have the guts to encourage customers to buy my competitor's products if they were better if I was the CEO. He's extremely lucky the board of directors didn't fire him for that, because they could have. Lee Iacocca is clearly a better man than me.

The same issue applies to movies and video/computer games. When a person sees their first R-rated movie or plays their first M-rated game, it's seen as a transition point, a milestone, a rite of passage. And when an teenager or adult does not want to play M-rated games or watch R-rated movies, there is a strong unjustified social stigma attached to that preference, a stigma that we must eradicate. This stigma drives teenagers and adults who genuinely prefer wholesome entertainment to keep their preferences a closely guarded secret. They will often play M-rated games and see R-rated movies

To eradicate this stigma, we need to make a documentary on the subject. We start by interviewing people who believe that if you're a teenager or an adult who doesn't enjoy playing M-rated games or R-rated movies, then there's something wrong with you. Those people probably have multiple unfounded misconceptions, and the film will then interview several people who genuinely dislike M-rated games and R-rated movies in great detail, in an attempt to dispel those misconceptions.

Most people are willing to humble themselves if they feel they can do so without excessive negative repercussions. Lee Iacocca felt that way, and those who prefer wholesome entertainment to dark and edgy entertainment have the right to feel the same way. Honestly admitting your personal shortcomings will not earn you awards, fame, or trust, but it will earn you respect, and possibly friendship/empathy from those who share your shortcomings.

Please provide feedback about my suggestion whenever you get a chance. Have a wonderful day, and God Bless You.

Sincerely,
David

{Paul}: David,

Thank you for your kind words of encouragement as well as numerous examples. It reminds me that President Trump is doing the job for one dollar a year as salary. He does not need the money, and does not want the money. Other CEOs have done the same thing. The core of your examples is thinking of self or thinking of others. Another aspect is do we need to follow the herd? Too many people care what others think of them. I have said it, and written it for years. I care about what God thinks about me. I treat everyone the same. It does not matter to me if you are the CEO or the janitor. I give you respect, and attention. I see others that kiss up to the dean, and ignore those that clean. When I was younger I was taught to not judge a book by its cover. I heard stories about millionaires who would go to a car dealership in average sweat pants and a T-shirt with the cash on hand to buy a car. They would see who would come serve them, and who would ignore them. In other words testing the salesmen. They made someone's day, and ruined the day of others.

On the stigma relating to those of us that prefer clean, wholesome entertainment. We are fighting that fight daily. I wrote a book that touched on that topic (Video Game Lies). Peer pressure never impacted me. Because my priorities are God first. It bothers me when some people call themselves Christian and they care more about image and what man thinks over being genuine, true, honest, and what God thinks. I make all kinds of mistakes.

False Accusations

The extreme radicals on the far left are getting more wicked by the day. They are calling good evil, and evil good. They have been turned over to their lustful desires and they viciously attack those that stand up for truth in the face of their lies and false accusations. America is in massive decline because of how those that try to redefine things keep moving forward. There are two Americas right now. There is one that is God obeying, God fearing, God loving, and truth loving people. The other group is God rebelling, God hating, Satan loving, and truth hating people. These two groups have two different systems of belief, and priority setting. 1 Timothy 5:17-19 The elders who direct the affairs of the church well are worthy of double honor, especially those whose work is preaching and teaching. 18 For Scripture says, "Do not muzzle an ox while it is treading out the grain," and "The worker deserves his wages." 19 Do not entertain an accusation against an elder unless it is brought by two or three witnesses. There is so much good content there. Elders in the church are to be respected. False accusations should not be immediately accepted.

Notice how those rebelling against God differ from what the Holy Bible teaches us? Ever heard anyone say: "we have to entertain the accusation because of the seriousness of the accusation." Obviously that statement is in direct violation of what God teaches us in the Holy Bible. I dare say it is rebellion against God. Anyone could accuse them of some serious mistake and we would have to be listened to because of the seriousness. Yet when they stand accused they want to immediately dismiss it. The double standard is horrible.

The response to the last couple of months of Devotionals has been vicious hate filled attacks, and false accusations. Why? We are speaking the truth in love. We are putting the Holy Bible out there to educate people who are ignorant to how they are rebelling against God. They do not like it very much. All they have known is darkness. They do not want the light to shine on their evil deeds. Psalms 35:20-21 They do not speak peaceably, but devise false accusations against those who live quietly in the land.

21 They sneer at me and say, "Aha! Aha!"

With our own eyes we have seen it." False accusers is nothing new. David had to deal with it. Jesus had to deal with people falsely accusing him too. John 15:20 Remember what I told you: 'A servant is not greater than his master.' If they persecuted me, they will persecute you also. If they obeyed my teaching, they will obey yours also. They prove Jesus spoke the truth yet again, and we are His followers.

God Bless,
Paul Bury

PRAYER

Jesus,

I know that I am a sinner and need Your forgiveness. Nothing I can do of my own power will give me true joy. I believe that You died for my sins. I want to turn from my enslavement to sins, and repent of them. I now invite You to come into my heart and life. I want to trust and follow You as my personal Lord and Savior. I welcome the transforming power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

HELPFUL THOUGHTS

There are wise decisions we make in life and there are mistakes. Family Friendly Gaming wants to share some thoughts that can be helpful. Maybe this will bring more joy into your life. Maybe it will allow you to have better physical health. Maybe it will help you reach a better mental, psychological or emotional state. The goal of each column in each month is to share some helpful thoughts to you and your family.

Stand for Truth

There are too many liars out there spewing whatever they want. There are way too many false accusers out there. They like to falsely accuse people of being things they are not. The damage of the redefinitionist movement has been seen far and wide all across the world. Real, true, and honest people must stand up for the truth. Sitting around and letting all these lies get repeated over and over again increases the chances that some will actually accept the lies as truth. How many times have you heard something not true? How often do you challenge the person saying it?

Family Friendly Gaming

has faced death threats and false accusations from those claiming to be tolerant of diversity. These same people claim to celebrate diversity. Notice how they are actually liars? If they celebrated diversity they would celebrate Family Friendly Gaming because we are obviously diverse from them. We stand for truth, and they attack it.

The haters like to make threats, and try to make everyone as miserable as they are. Do not go into the mud with them. This is exactly what they want. They want to destroy. They want your halo to get knocked off center. They act just like their father Satan. They want to kill and destroy anything and everyone that exposes them for the vile, wicked, evil they spew over and over again. They do not want to face reality. They do not want to face truth. Why not? Can you think of any reasons why they do not want to face the truth?

There are a couple of reasons some people do not want to face truth. They know that they truth will set them free. They embrace and love their chains. They know they are enslaved, and they like how things are for them. They enjoy trying to destroy and ruin others. They want to ensnare and put others into the same bondage to sin. Others do not want to face the truth because they realize the truth will require them to change. They understand that they cannot keep going like they are once the light of the truth shines on their wicked deeds. They want to avoid being exposed as so wretched.

You have probably heard: "speak the truth in love." Have you ever thought about how love is firm? Have you ever realized that love embraces the truth? Have you ever realized that love endorses reality? There is no need to be a marshmallow standing for the truth. You do not need to bend, bow, or move away from the truth to get others to accept it. They will come when the Holy Spirit convicts them of their evil words and deeds. They may never come. That is a reality we must all face. Some people will constantly make the wrong choices. Some people will choose to rebel against God over and over again. It is no wonder God wants to draw them to Him because he feels so sad for them. We also feel sad for them. Obedience to God is so much better than slavery to Satan. Sadly some people relate more with darkness than light.

Crusader Kings the Board Game Launches

Paradox Interactive, a publisher of games that you won't discard, announced that Crusader Kings the Board Game was released worldwide. The feats of arms, backstabbing, and love affairs of medieval Europe are being brought back to life at gaming tables everywhere thanks to a partnership with Free League Publishing, with a debut next month in Indianapolis, Indiana at Gen Con 2019, with global retail to begin shortly after the convention.

In the medieval strategy soap opera of Crusader Kings the Board Game, your King or Queen will need to survive the dangers of invasions, plots, crusades, and marriage - the most important choice of all. You will find that the life of a medieval ruler is full of challenging events and if your ruler cannot survive, at least you can count on your heir - hopefully. Failure to raise a suitable successor could bring about the end of your dynasty, leaving you a mere footnote in your nation's history.

Based on the popular computer strategy game series, Crusader Kings the Board Game moves the infamous ambition and scheming from the computer to the tabletop. Do you have what it takes to become a Crusader King? Rejoice, for you shall soon find out!

Tropico 6 Console Release Date

Strategy gaming specialists Kalypso Media and developers Limbic Entertainment have announced that Tropico 6 will release worldwide on September 27, 2019 for PlayStation 4 and Xbox One.

The Xbox One version is available now in Game Preview, and just received a major update, which introduces the random map generator alongside other improvements and fixes. The full changelog can be found on the Kalypso forum, while a new batch of screenshots can be downloaded to show the random map generator in action.

The Tropico series has faced controversy over its attacks on traditional and Biblical marriage. Family Friendly Gaming continues to stand up for Christians, conservatives, and traditional and Biblical marriage for many years now.

Bake 'n Switch Coming in Autumn

Streamline Media Group announced that its new, original IP Bake 'n Switch will hit Steam Early Access in Autumn 2019 with a full commercial launch planned for PC and porting to other platforms further down the development pipeline. Bake 'n Switch is a couch co-op and PVP game where strange, adorable dough creatures must be sacrificed to the Guardians of Dough in order to appease their hunger, thus gaining their help in fighting the Scourge!

"Bake 'n Switch is our third original IP and we're proud of what the team has put together. It highlights the growing capability of Streamline's continued expansion into video game development," said Alexander L. Fernandez, CEO of Streamline Media Group. "From original game development, co-development, and art creation, Streamline continues to innovate and show the world what can be done in opportunity markets such as Southeast Asia."

"We're excited to start nearing the Early Access launch on Steam for Bake 'n Switch and we can't wait to hear what players think of it," said Stefan Baier, COO of Streamline Media Group. "As a local multiplayer party game, it's important for us to receive community feedback so that we can develop a more exciting, fun, and engaging experience, so let us know what you think!”

A long time a-dough in a bakery far, far away, The First Bakers came together to defeat the Scourge. The Scourge threatened their precious food source – unreasonably cute and blobular dough creatures that roam the land. To save their world, The Bakers must combine the dough creatures – the bigger the dough, the higher your score – and bake heaving mounds of them in the oven before time runs out! Journey through the levels to summon the Guardians, satiate their insufferable munchies and gain their aid to defeat The Scourge. Little did the Bakers know what the Guardians demanded in return...

Four Bakers are planned for Early Access launch, including Ginger, Parsley, Thyme and Rosemary with more planned to help fend off Stickies, Spores and Mouldies through levels of co-op or PVP baking pandemonium! Throughout the Early Access phase, Streamline plans to update Bake 'n Switch based on player feedback, so add it to your Wishlist on Steam today to receive beta updates and help continue to build and shape the game!

Konami and Arsenal FC Announce Extension to Long-Term Partnership

Konami Digital Entertainment, Inc. has announced an extension to its long-term partnership with the English football club, Arsenal FC, coinciding with the start of the PES LEAGUE 2019 World Finals that are being hosted at Emirates Stadium this weekend.

“We’re delighted to announce the extension of our long-running partnership with one of the biggest and most successful football clubs in the world,” commented Jonas Lygaard, Senior Director Brand & Business Development at Konami Digital Entertainment B.V. “Building on our existing relationship, we look forward to working even closer with The Gunners, who will be featured extensively in eFootball PES 2020.”

The upgraded partnership between KONAMI and Arsenal FC provides the eFootball PES series creators with substantial access to the club’s stars, ensuring the club will be presented in the game true to original, in addition to brand visibility during match days at Emirates Stadium.

eFootball PES 2020 will also include a highly detailed recreation of Arsenal’s Emirates Stadium alongside 3D scans of the club’s players, capturing the visual likenesses of the players, imitating their movements, playing styles and tactical capabilities.

Arsenal FC’s Commercial Director Peter Silverstone, said: “We are delighted to be extending our global partnership with KONAMI. Now in our third year, our relationship continues to go from strength to strength. We are excited to work with KONAMI to further engage our huge global fanbase and give them the opportunity to experience the players, Legends and Emirates Stadium so accurately within eFootball PES 2020.”

Arsenal FC has enjoyed a rich history since its birth in 1886, boasting the greatest number of successes in the world’s oldest cup competition, the FA Cup. Arsenal FC has also enjoyed league success, winning the title on 13 different occasions, including their ‘Invincible’ campaign in which they went the whole of the 2003/2004 season unbeaten.

eFootball PES 2020 ushers in a new decade of industry-leading football simulation with a bold promise to revolutionise eFootball and introduce the sport to a global audience. The game features a brand-new mode called Matchday that will allow Arsenal FC fans to come together for weekly events to compete in the biggest matches and secure victory against the club’s biggest rivals.

eFootball PES 2020 will be available on PlayStation®4, Xbox One™, and PC STEAM, on September 10th (Americas/Europe/Asia) / September 12th (Japan) with pre-orders now available for the standard and legend editions. An exclusive Arsenal FC Edition of the game will also be available.

Banish Sweaty Palms for Good

Gamer Goo®, makers of the world’s only dedicated gaming lotion, announced the launch of three all-new scents to its range of uniquely innovative products. Joining the already popular Orange, Peppermint and Cinnamon varieties, are the sweet summer smell of Vanilla Sugar, the enticing allure of Teakwood and the captivating fragrance of Cherry Blossom. The new scents are all available to purchase now, shipping worldwide via the Gamer Goo website.

An innovation in gaming skincare and the only product of its type dedicated to enhancing performance of gamers, Gamer Goo is designed to improve the gamers grip, as well as increasing accuracy and dexterity by reducing sweat and clammy hands forever. The unique Gamer Goo formula leaves behind no greasy or damaging residue and won’t damage controllers, keyboards, mice or accessories.

Professional gamers and participants in esports will be all too familiar with the debilitating symptoms which can result from intense gaming, namely a rapid build-up of sweat during heated play. The special formulation only offered by Gamer Goo keeps hands dry, cool and sweat free, allowing the gamer to perform at their best for hours on end. A simple pea-sized application is all that’s needed to keep fresh and one-step-ahead of the competition. Used by many professional gamers, Gamer Goo is the secret weapon to ensuring an edge over the competition, getting to work instantly, drying almost instantly and leaving a layer of protection to blocks sweat and moisture.

“Gamers around the globe are fast discovering the benefits that Gamer Goo provides to performance. Our community has welcomed our unique range with open (and sweat free!) hands and love the distinct fragrances our products offer,” said Justin Clark, Co-Founder of Gamer Goo. “We’re excited to bring three new scents to our product portfolio, further enhancing choice and allowing gamers to express themselves further while adding a very real competitive advantage during play. With our range shipping worldwide, we look forward to bringing Gamer Goo to more gamers than ever before in the year ahead.”

Updated Release Date for Trails of Cold Steel III

To guarantee as successful a launch window as possible, the release date for The Legend of Heroes: Trails of Cold Steel III on PlayStation®4 is postponed to October 22, 2019 in North America and Europe and October 29 in Oceania. NIS America sincerely apologizes to everyone who was greatly looking forward to its release, and would like to thank fans for their understanding and patience as the team is working hard to deliver the best possible experience.

We are excited to announce today that a demo will be released prior to launch, with more details coming soon. Trails of Cold Steel III also currently has an Official Jacket & PS4™ Pro Contest with a weekly chance to win a PS4™ Pro and even a custom-fit Thors Branch Campus jacket.

Woodwork Simulator is coming

UK-based independent game publisher, The Irregular Corporation has announced details around an upcoming Woodwork Simulator complete with a playable Itch.io build.

“At the Irregular Corporation, we are always looking for new ways to bring real-world passions to the world of video games and with various budding woodworkers on the team this concept was a natural fit for a potential next game.” said Stuart Morton, Publishing Director of Irregular Corporation.

“Creating the free-form nature of woodworking in videogame format is tricky work, so we decided to release an early version of the game concept for free via Itch.io to gather feedback from actual players on what they can create and what they would like to see next from the project. We can’t wait to see what people can make!”

The Itch.io pre-alpha build features the ability to follow templated build projects, as well as build whatever you can think of, in free build mode. All while protecting you from the perils of woodworking, such as dust inhalation, splinters and chiselled fingers.

Players will be able to saw, plane, lathe, chisel, glue and drill their way through build projects and finish them off with a selection of oils and paint, showcasing their work through a built-in photography system.

So whether it’s your first time picking up a saw again since you made that awful jewelry box in school for mother’s day, or you’re a woodworking expert, we would love to see what the community can build with Woodwork Simulator.

Resort Boss Golf Releases

Resort Boss: Golf, Excalibur Games and Gus Martin’s tycoon management game, exits Early Access and transitions to full release. This version 1.0 update sees scenario mode make its debut, offering players new golf resort challenges. Players can now create their own scenarios in the scenario editor, while the driving range and putting green have also been added, allowing resort guests to refine their golfing skills.

Hitting full launch does not mark the end of content updates for the game. Seasoned developer Gus Martin is committed to supporting Resort Boss: Golf with a wealth of new features and improvements post-launch.

Post Launch Resort Boss: Golf Roadmap Imminent: Improved golfer AI, golfer social reactions and vending machines

September: New staff members and objects and a new resort rating system

October: Further building and facility customisation, plus Steam achievements

November: Campaign mode and Steam Workshop support

Unleash your inner tycoon and build your golf club from a one-hole course to a 5-star resort. Paint the land with luscious fairways, design world-class golf courses and manage staff to attract VIP golfers from all over the planet.

Resort Boss: Golf is inspired by the likes of Sid Meier’s Sim Golf, and developed by industry veteran Gus Martin, whose working credits include renowned studios such as Capcom, Square Enix and EA (Electronic Arts).

About Resort Boss: Golf

Build Your Golf Club Paint the land with fairways to create the world class resort required to attract VIP golfers from all over the planet. Utilise expansive landscaping tools; mould terrain, plant trees and populate your resort with sprawling green hills, seaside cliffs, bunkers and water hazards to create fun and challenging holes. Build the restaurants, shops and hotels demanding golfers expect from the world’s best resorts. Be the Resort Boss Strategically transform your business with full control over hiring, firing and shops, while always keeping one eye on balance sheets to see if your revenue is on track as you build a bustling resort! Ensure that your golf courses are of the utmost quality by taking to the fairways and sneaking in a round or two of golf for yourself. Become World Famous Attract new guests and act on feedback to hone your resort and deliver the luxury golfing experience VIP guests demand. Will you be able to take your golf club to the global stage and build a world-renowned resort?

WE WOULD PLAY THAT!

There are all kinds of cool family friendly video game ideas out there. This column features ideas of video games we would play. We hope games like these are created in the near future. Can you make it happen?

Some of the best memories of my life come from being a child. There is such an innocence about being a child. This is something that no video game has ever captured for me. There are children video games that are simple, easy, and fun. None of them bring me back to being a kid and playing in the yard, forest, playground, and more. What kind of a video game do you think could do this? There are playground based video games but none of them give that joy of going down a slide for the first time. Or the fun of being on a swing and having someone push you. This is the kind of a video game that could be done in VR. Imagine a VR based playground game where we could experience being a kid again. No goals, no levels, and no pressure. Just enjoy having fun. Sort of a recess based video game. Would you play something like that?

We would here at Family Friendly Gaming. We would love to see a game that gets away from all of the radical politics, hater gamers, arrogant gamers, violent games, immoral games, unethical games, and more. Something that harkens back to the days of innocence and pure fun. Something that reminds us what it is like to go climb a tree. In fact that could be another area in this fun little VR game we are discussing in this column. Have you ever climbed a tree and looked around? Have you been up in a tree in a wind storm when the air fills your lungs and you are holding on as the tree sways? I have done these things and watched ants walk around on a tree that I had climbed. I have ridden trees down as they were cut. Talk about an exhilarating ride. It may not have been the most safe thing to do, but I am still here so obviously I survived it.

Speaking of pure fun and innocence. What about playing a dog that has his head out the window. Enjoying the wind as your owner drives you down the road to the grocery store, or vet. Have you ever noticed how much fun those dogs have with their heads out the windows enjoying life? Why can't we have video game experiences just like that? Do you want video game experiences like that? Would you play games like these in your home?

John 1:12-13

12 Yet to all who did receive him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God—
13 children born not of natural descent, nor of human decision or a husband's will, but born of God.

REVIEWS

Welcome to our reviews section. We have a couple of rules when it comes to our reviews. The reviewer must give an honest accounting as to why he/she liked or disliked something. No fanboy reviews allowed here, or at the very least they are discouraged (after all everyone has their own personal biases, likes, and dislikes). Everyone also has different tolerances, and weaknesses - we strive to keep that in mind in our reviews. We have been burned ourselves by reviews saying a certain game is great, only to be greatly offended by that game. Reviewers must be kind in their reviews. A game may be horrible, but there is no need to degrade the developer, publisher, artists, etc. There is also no need for name calling.

We review video games on five separate criteria: graphics, sound, replay/extras, gameplay, and family friendly factor. Review scale can be found here. The editor in chief coordinates reviews to have as much cohesion as possible. We are very open about the way we review video games. Each section starts with a 75 score, and can earn or lose points based on the content of the game, using our grading scale (found on the website).

Parents, please do not take any of our reviews as gospel. Different people are offended by different things. We work hard here at Family Friendly Gaming to discern the good from the bad in the teachings of each different video game. What may seem harmless to our reviewer(s), could be a big deal to you. We encourage you to spend time with your children and investigate each video game yourself. Each review is written with you in mind, and we try to mention each problem we find. We are not perfect, and miss things from time to time - just as the ESRB does. The ESRB rating is merely a start, and since they ignore many of the moral and spiritual factors important to parents all across America, we do our small part to fill that huge void. We are a small ministry and your prayers are so very important to us.

Phoenix Wright Ace Attorney Trials and Tribulations

SCORE: 60

I finish off my Phoenix Wright Ace Attorney reviews with Phoenix Wright Ace Attorney Trials and Tribulations on the Nintendo DS. This handheld lawyer based video game feels more polished than some of the previous ones. We still have lengthy court cases. There are all kinds of quirks in the characters and settings. We still have to find the lies in the testimony. It astound me how many killers in this franchise have to testify as witnesses.

I am thankful Family Friendly Gaming purchased a copy of Phoenix Wright Ace Attorney Trials and Tribulations on the Nintendo DS. The physical copy came with a case, a cartridge and a manual. Digital downloadable games do not give the same feel as a physical copy release. How many times does Phoenix Wright go one trial? It happens again in Phoenix Wright Ace Attorney Trials and Tribulations. Maybe the writers are on the lazy side.

There is quite a bit of time between the saves in Phoenix Wright Ace Attorney Trials and Tribulations. Thankfully we can suspend the game and get a temporary save right then and there. Once we use that save then it goes away. So do not rely on them. The profiles aspect of Phoenix Wright Ace Attorney Trials and Tribulations is pretty cool. The judge may ask who was the witness actually trying to kill. We present that pro-

Wright Ace Attorney Trials and Tribulations. I enjoyed my time with this game. I hope the franchise returns to the physical copy realm real soon.

file as our answer. I played enough of these games to understand generally what to do. Press the witnesses for more information. Look at the evidence compared to their statements. Find the contradictions and present them. Expect some crude humor, enticement to lust, lack of attire, blood, and violence in Phoenix Wright Ace Attorney Trials and Tribulations. Also expect plenty of lies.

I love the animation changes to the characters when things are not going their way. These subtle changes let us know how we are doing in a case and with a witness. The witnesses can look downright demonic at times in Phoenix

Super Mario Maker 2

If you are watching our Twitch streams then you knew this review was coming. I purchased Super Mario Maker 2 on the Nintendo Switch. Family Friendly Gaming helped me out with the purchase, and FFG also purchased a year of the online services so I could test the online functions. The failures and discrimination from the haters that represent and market this company are something we come to expect. The FFG attitude is Nintendo wants no sales from FFG Universe. That is their wish and it should be respected.

New Super Mario Bros U, and Super Mario 3D World. There are no 3D levels in Super Mario Maker 2 though. The 2D side scrolling levels have depth to them. We can also climb walls with the cat.

Super Mario Maker 2 comes with one hundred levels in the story mode where we build a castle. Super Mario Maker 2 also includes Course Maker, Course World, and Course Bot. We can play levels created by gamers from all over the world. We can also upload some levels and let other people play them. I think this is really cool personally. I know how my dad feels about it. There are some cool new features in Super Mario Maker 2 that will interest gamers from all over the world. The grappler arms are pretty neat. The cat Mario is cool. There are different kinds of levels in Super Mario Maker 2 too. Some of them are easier to beat than others.

Did you enjoy the Twitch streams we did of Super Mario Maker 2? Multiple family members can enjoy Super Mario Maker 2 at the same time. Unless they are playing a troll level then they may not enjoy it so much. I value Super Mario Maker 2 at forty dollars brand new. It is a bit over-priced right now in my professional opinion.

World of Final Fantasy Maxima

SCORE: 58

Why do some video companies re-release their games with some minor additions to it? Why do they think we want to play the same game again with some extras in it? The one saving grace for World of Final Fantasy Maxima is it is now on more systems than the original. So PC, Nintendo Switch, and Xbox One owners can brag they got more than the original PS4 and PS Vita owners. Of course the PS4 and PS Vita owners can purchase World of Final Fantasy Maxima to get all of that as well.

World of Final Fantasy Maxima is a mixture of Final Fantasy, Kingdom Hearts, and Pokemon. We capture monsters, stack them, and have them fight other monsters.

The issues families will have with World of Final Fantasy Maxima are violence, bad language, enticement to lust, false gods, war on men, promotes evolution religious beliefs, and more. Thankfully we can skip the extremely long cut scenes in World of Final Fantasy Maxima.

It warms my heart of hearts that Family Friendly Gaming purchased World of Final Fantasy Maxima on the Xbox One. This game sat for many months because it was such a low priority. World of Final Fantasy Maxima is a lot of rehash with some additional content. Is that additional content worth the cost of admission if you already own World of Final Fantasy? My answer is no.

The graphics range in World of Final Fantasy Maxima. Most of them are crisp and clear but on the small side. The English voice acting is neat to hear. World of Final Fantasy Maxima can become a very boring experience. The skill points matrix is one of the cool parts of World of Final Fantasy Maxima. Visiting different Final Fantasy worlds is interesting.

If you never played World of Final Fantasy then you might be interested in World of Final Fantasy Maxima for twenty dollars or less brand new. If you have played the original then I suggest you pass on World of Final Fantasy Maxima. Too much bad content was included in World of Final Fantasy Maxima that attacks good beliefs that make this world a better place.

Valthirian Arc Hero School Story

SCORE: 57

Have you ever looked at a game and just knew it was going to be a lame experience? That is what happened with me and Valthirian Arc Hero School Story. I cringed at playing this game. I knew a little bit about it, and what I knew did not impress me. Valthirian Arc Hero School Story looks like a PS2 or early PS3 game. The graphics are just bad.

There are two main things we do in Valthirian Arc Hero School Story. We build up the academy, and we send students out on missions. The students can level up and get stronger. We also collect materials like scraps to forge better equipment for the students. The hack and slash violence in Valthirian Arc Hero School Story is extremely repetitive.

Some people might consider Valthirian Arc Hero

School Story part of the war on men. There are five queens and men are in support roles. The music in Valthirian Arc Hero School Story is okay. The violent content comes along with the hack and slash genre. Many of the enemies look the same. They do get strong as we progress through missions. Students can die and that makes this game even harder.

There are three modes for our team of students. They can be aggressive, defensive, or focus. The academy can be upgraded when we earn enough money. Money is earned from sending the students out. I did figure out a few things while playing Valthirian Arc Hero School Story. I let larger monsters target me, I would run around, and let the other students decimate the monster.

I had no fun playing Valthirian Arc Hero School Story. The bad art and graphics are one thing. The boring and repetitive game play is another. The fantasy world here is just off. The academy building takes too long. Valthirian Arc Hero School Story does not provide much direction after the beginning either. Pass on this game.

Shaq Fu A Legend Reborn

SCORE: 40

SCORE: 75

Why would you take a horrible game from the past and remake it? That is exactly what happened with Shaq Fu A Legend Reborn on the Nintendo Switch, Personal Computer, Playstation 4, and Xbox One. You can save your money for something better since Family Friendly Gaming purchased a copy of this game and reviewed it. Shaq Fu A Legend Reborn sat on the shelf for some time because no one really wanted to play it. Our expectations were already really low.

After the long installation of Shaq Fu A Legend Reborn, we had to wait through a long update. What was fixed? This game is buggy beyond belief. I love how Shaq Fu A Legend Reborn tells us to do things like use the 'B' button to hit a character with a shield. Guess what happened? He blocked and attacked in return.

I love tutorials that are failures. The modes in Shaq Fu A Legend Reborn are Continue, New Game, Shaq-O-Pedia, Settings, Credits, and Challenges. Shaq Fu A Legend Reborn welcomes us to Shaq rapping about himself. We also get voice acting that is offensive more times than not. The issues families will have with Shaq Fu A Legend Reborn are violence, bad language, nudity, lack of attire, sexual comment, bad humor, drug references, sexual deviants and more.

It is really easy to die in Shaq Fu A Legend Reborn. We fight the same enemies over and over again in the Final Fight style of gameplay. Shaq Fu A Legend Reborn gets boring really fast. Everything about Shaq Fu A Legend Reborn made my skin crawl. Shaq Fu A Legend Reborn is a great example of how bad some video games were in the past. We did not need this reminder.

Do not spend your money on Shaq Fu A Legend Reborn. There are so many better products on the market. We take donations if you want to help out Family Friendly Gaming. Shaq Fu A Legend Reborn is a game that should have stayed dead and buried. Sadly someone thought this game was a good idea.

I purchased Fire Emblem Three Houses because I wanted to Twitch stream this game. This Nintendo Switch game comes in the extremely respected physical copy format. I love how Fire Emblem Three Houses comes with Japanese or English voice acting. I personally prefer the Japanese voice acting. Which do you prefer? There are three campaigns for three different houses in Fire Emblem Three Houses. Kind of like Fire Emblem Fates.

The issues families will have with Fire Emblem Three Houses are blood, violence, lack of attire, enticement to lust, magic, promoting the false goddess religious belief and more. We play a professor in Fire Emblem Three Houses and pick which house we will assist. Battles in Fire Emblem Three Houses have some interesting twists in them. I loved being the part of multiple different teams battling it out on the same screen.

It can take 240 hours to play through all of Fire Emblem Three Houses. That is a lot of turn based battles. I like the graphical style in Fire Emblem Three Houses. I know some people that are not into this art style. There are multiple difficulty settings thirteen and older only members of the family can play Fire Emblem Three Houses. Weapons only have so many uses, and different weapons do different amounts of damage and have different effects and strengths.

I know Fire Emblem Three Houses is selling for the sixty dollar price tag as I write this review. With all of the hours of gameplay I feel Fire Emblem Three Houses warrants that price. You better like Japanese turn based role playing games though. There is plenty of micro management you will need to do while playing Fire Emblem Three Houses on the Nintendo Switch.

I plan on Twitch streaming Fire Emblem Three Houses for quite some time now. Probably my main game for the rest of the year. I hope you come by and watch those streams, chat, follow, and throw some bits our way. You can get a good feel for this game, and my experiences with it. I am thankful Nintendo is dumping the Nintendo 3DS and moving their franchises to the Nintendo Switch. Fire Emblem Three Houses is a better experience on the Switch.

Black Lightning The Complete First Season

Bumblebee

SCORE: 72

I was curious about Black Lightning The Complete First Season. I was concerned it would be bad. My concerns were justified. This is the most racist television show I have seen in my entire life. Black Lightning The Complete First Season takes real life events and assigns the fake news narrative to them. Black Lightning The Complete First Season is an extremely radical far leftist propaganda show that falls flat at every turn.

Complete First Season are a complete disservice to all Americans.

The divisive nature of Black Lightning The Complete First Season is horrible. The lightning powers of the main character are interesting. SPOILER ALERT! One of his daughters get super strength powers when she holds her breath. The Other daughter gets lightning abilities like him. Death that does not mean a lot in Black Lightning The Complete First Season. Powers are given via genetics or science in Black Lightning The Complete First Season.

The one saving grace of Black Lightning The Complete First Season is it only took 544 minutes to watch the thirteen episodes. Black Lightning The Complete First Season is short. Sadly too much of the time was squandered being wishy washy. Black Lightning is back, no he is not, etc. That back and forth nature was probably meant to show a struggle but it fell flat.

White people are generally shown as evil in Black Lightning The Complete First Season. The only ones that are not must constantly apologize to black people, and grovel at their feet. The level of racism in Black Lightning The Complete First Season is so high that it is sickening. This is obviously how the radical far leftist feel. Black Lightning The Complete First Season does nothing to heal race relations, instead it makes them worse. - Paul Bumblebee is the live action Transformers movie we have been asking for since they started making live action Transformer movies. Bumblebee is much safer for families than the other Transformer movies. In fact Bumblebee is on the low end of the PG-13 review scale compared to the others that were at the line of the Restricted rating. Bumblebee is also absolutely hilarious. Family Friendly Gaming purchased the Blu-ray + DVD + Digital version of Bumblebee. John Cena does an amazing job in his role in Bumblebee. I wish his mouth was a bit cleaner as he lets a couple of profanities slip. Bumblebee is all about the origins of the Bumblebee character in terms of Earth. We see him on Cybertron and find out about his original mission. He also ties back to the first live action Transformer movie in the credits.

This young lady having a rough patch of her life runs across Bumblebee. She needs a car and he is forgotten where he is hiding. He comes out of his shell and tries to learn Earth culture. Bumblebee tries really hard. This is where a lot of the humor comes into play. Especially when he feels bad about making mistakes. Bumblebee also finally shows us how he lost his voice.

In the Bumblebee movie he gets a new radio and learns how to speak through it. This is a really cool part of the movie. There are some giant robot battles in Bumblebee. The Earth must be saved from the Decepticons. It is however on a much smaller scale than previous movies. I loved seeing all of the cool characters on Cybertron and naming them from how they looked.

We enjoyed the 113 minutes of Bumblebee. We also enjoyed all of the bonus content. There are over 60 minutes of bonus content on the Bumblebee Blu-ray disc. I hope this franchise continues and keeps showing us more of the past of Cybertron. I would love to see how the Autobot rebellion began. It was a pleasure for me to watch Bumblebee at home. - Paul

College Hoops 2K7

SCORE: 86

Did you enjoy the Twitch stream Teen Gamer and I did of College Hoops 2K7 on the Xbox? We had some fun playing this retro based sports video game.

There were some glitches which may have something to do with the scratches on the disc, or the console we are currently using. College Hoops 2K7 would freeze on us. It is also possible someone hit the wrong button multiple times.

College Hoops 2K7 sounds good and it looks good. I enjoyed playing this sports game. The precision passing, Legacy Mode, Authentic College Fight Songs, and Real College Coaches make College Hoops 2K7 a pleasurable experience. The bands, cheerleaders, and fans add to the realism of College Hoops 2K7. This game is on multiple systems for families with different consoles. I found College Hoops 2K7 to be a fun experience. When we got used to some of the nuances.

I love the free throw system in College Hoops 2K7. We pull the stick back and flick it forward. This is so much easier than so many other basketball video games that may have two gauges or circles and a rim. College Hoops 2K7 made me feel like I had a better shot at making the free throws than some other retro basketball video games.

There are plenty of teams for families to play with in College Hoops 2K7. There are also plenty of ways to play College Hoops 2K7. We can customize things in College Hoops 2K7 which is cool. I felt like I was playing college basketball from that era with College Hoops 2K7. Younger gamers may struggle with certain concepts in this game. Fouls did not always make sense to me.

I would love to see this franchise return at some point. Playing in the Final Four tournament is something I want to do again with modern graphics, controls, and team rankings. College Hoops 2K7 is a solid basketball title for its era. I really want to see college basketball games again that are fun like College Hoops 2K7. - Paul

Victorious Hollywood Arts Debut

SCORE: 88

I am so thankful we received enough advertisement and donation money to purchase Victorious Hollywood Arts Debut on the Nintendo DS. This television based video game surprised on so many front. Victorious Hollywood Arts Debut is a hand held video game with huge character models.

There is plenty of great music in Victorious Hollywood Arts Debut for families to enjoy while they help the characters out in the twelve episodes. There are plenty of mini games to play in Victorious Hollywood Arts Debut. I wish the strumming part worked better. That is the one aspect of this game I did not enjoy.

Hopefully you enjoyed all of the Youtube videos I did of Victorious Hollywood Arts Debut. This game caught my attention and kept it all the way to the end. I would love to see more games like Victorious Hollywood Arts Debut in the near future.

Madden NFL 08

I really like sports video games on the hand holds. I know they do not look as good, sound as good, or have as many options. Madden NFL 08 on the Nintendo DS impressed me greatly. This hand held sports game is fun to play and includes enough options to keep sports gamers interested.

Madden NFL 08 also is selling for a really low price too. If you have any form of the Nintendo DS/DSi/3DS/2DS then you can play Madden NFL 08. Did you enjoy the videos I did of Madden NFL 08? I had fun playing this game. Madden NFL 08 on the DS feels like football.

I would love to see sports games appear on the hand holds again. Madden NFL 08 shows what can be done for families. The kicking is good in this game. The teams and modes kept me engaged for quite a long time. I had a blast playing Madden NFL 08 on the Nintendo DS.
