Growth at different paces

One of the things that has interested me personally is how growth is different on different sites, locations, and areas. Take the website hits on the Family Friendly Gaming website. Some months are over one million and other months are in the 800K to 900K range. We have amazing weeks where hits are flying off the shelves and other months where it is a bit stagnant. We are constantly releasing new content. At times a six month old news story takes off in terms of hits. I never know what will blow up and when. Many times I have no clue why something blew up. Other times I can easily figure it out. A great example is the Just Dance Rasputin video. With all of the activity in Russia and Ukraine that video took off. World events can impact content we created years ago.

Our YouTube channel continues to grow, develop and improve. It astounds me some of the growth we get there. The videos, and live streams are doing great. The YouTube shorts are getting good views as well. What irritates me is we started doing YouTube shorts for the bonus payments YouTube announced. We have gotten no bonus payments ever. I have asked multiple times about the bonus payments and get vague answers. We still don't know how to even qualify. That is vague and they won't share that. So we started this because of a promise of a bonus that we never receive. The good news is we get good views on the YT Shorts and we can export them to our other video sites. We are having fun doing them. It would be nice to receive the bonus payments or at least understand why we do not qualify.

I like GAB a lot. I am really into what that social media website is doing. I am really loving that site. The problem is we are going nowhere with new subscribers on GAB. I am not that into GETTR but it just keeps growing and growing. Amazing how that works. Almost like high school dating. Really like this one girl, but she is into someone else. Not into some other girl and she is all over you. It just baffles me how that works some days. Maybe GAB has a much smaller community. I hope it grows and develops. Parler is a bit stagnant at the moment. At least Parler has fixed most of their bugs and issues.

Rumble keeps growing and we are so appreciative of that site. There are some days I do not have enough time to catch up on all of the comments we receive on Rumble. I want to. I just do not have the time. Plus Rumble only allows so many responses in certain time frames. I have been told I am making too many comments and must wait five minutes to respond to another comment we received. That also kills our ability to respond to all of the comments on Rumble. Hopefully we will cross the one thousand subscriber mark on Rumble when this issue is published. We are getting pretty close as I write this.

From month to month we keep growing which is great to see. My prayer is that Family Friendly Gaming reaches more people for the Kingdom of God on a daily basis. We want to continue to shine as a bright city on the hill. I hope you will continue to be a part of this journey with us. We will continue to provide clean entertainment, news, reviews, previews, videos, live streams, and more for your families. Thank you so much for your support.

God bless,
Paul Bury

FEMALE SIDE

Warmer Weather

As I am writing this column the temperatures are starting to get warmer. We have still get a cold spell here and there. Thankfully the weather is getting nice. Which makes me think about what is coming very soon. By the time this column is online and "in print" the temperatures should be much warmer. Air Conditioning will be a part of our normal every day lives. The seasonal cycle will turn toward the warm weather again. That means a lot more things can be done outside. It also means mowing the lawn more often because the grass likes to grow. I noticed the weeds seem to grow faster than the grass. Maybe we should have a lawn of just weeds. It probably would not look as nice though. Princess would not care one way or the other.

The heat can present all kinds of problems as equipment may run into issues operating. People and pets will need to try and keep cool in the hotter temperatures. Sun burn can become a real issue and problem for those not paying attention out in the sun. The young and the elderly need to be protected by those of us that are in the healthy age range. Drink plenty of water to stay hydrated. You do not want to get heat stroke out there. Lakes, ponds, and pools can be great places to cool off. Just be aware of potential snakes in the water. You do not want to get bit and deal with that poison.

Summer time can be a really good time to get with family. Build those memories while ya'll are still around. You never know when God will tell you: "Well done good and faithful servant." Friends can spend time together in the summer as well. It is so much nicer to take a drive in the warmer weather than the colder weather. There is no concern about snow, ice, or other really dangerous road hazards. If you live in tornado country then be aware of the sirens and of course the skies. Bad weather can still come in the summer time. Lightning storms are just as dangerous in the summer time if you know what I am referencing.

We love getting to wear shorts in the summer time here in the Memphis, TN area. In fact we spend more time in jean shorts than regular shorts throughout the year. My hubby reminds me of Stone Cold Steve Austin in how he dresses much of the summer time. Minus those knee braces off course. Jean shorts and a t-shirt are the preferred attire for my hubby in the summer time. It is always so nice to go to bed to some nice cool, light sheets. Gone are the warmer sheets from the winter time. Now it is time to cool off and have a fan on when we lay our heads down to sleep.

Are you planning a trip this summer? Are you still worried about COVID-19? I must admit that I am no longer worried about it. Getting the vaccines and COVID-19 has something to do with that. I still wear a mask when I work because I am out in the public. The boys and I are the only one in our family that still wears a mask from time to time. My hubby has an opinion on it. He says: "If I get COVID again I get it again. It wasn't bad the first time." I think a lot of people have stopped listening to the Democrat talking point media. Reality and the fear mongering from the fake news are far apart. Most of us are tired of being controlled by those peddling fear. We prefer freedom and choice.

God bless,
Yolanda Bury

Mission Statement

Family Friendly Gaming (FFG) was created in March of the year of our Lord 2005 as the first ever Christian video game magazine. The goal of Family Friendly Gaming is to report on video games from the family view point. Family Friendly Gaming takes a fair and balanced approach to all news, previews, reviews, interviews, features, and other articles found within. The secular video game media reports mainly on the most morally bankrupt games and call those games good. The major secular media reports on the bad side of video games mainly. Most other Christian media outlets claim video games turn the player into a zombie, or they completely worship video games. Family Friendly Gaming reports the good, and bad side effects to video games. It is the belief of the owners that readers are smart enough to come to their conclusions without those in the media handing opinions to them. Those of us at Family Friendly Gaming believe by giving you the facts, you can decide for yourself. There are plenty of really good video games on the market that teach wonderful lessons. Both inside the Christian video game market, and from non-Christian video game developers. Family Friendly Gaming seeks out these video games to bring them to your attention. Since it is unknown before playing a game how family friendly it is; it is possible that this magazine will preview a game, and then the review will expose problems previously unknown. Family Friendly Gaming promises to always ask the question: "how God feels about certain video games." God's opinion on the matter is more important than any mere mortal. Which is why the rest of the industry does not influence FFG.

SOUND OFF

The Sound Off section is where you the reader/ emailer is heard. What you have to say is put in this section for all the readers to see. Of course certain content is edited for appropriateness issues. This is a family friendly magazine, and certain content is just not proper. We hope you enjoy this section as much as we do. Keep an eye out for your comments appearing in these very pages. You have our attention, so SOUND OFF!

Coming Together

I love your FFG Original news stories. That page has so much wisdom in it that I can never get enough of it. Do you guys accept gift cards as donations? I want to help out when and where I can. I can help out that way if you are willing to accept it.

I appreciate all you are doing. I understand how hard you work on Family Friendly Gaming, making videos, streaming, and working a day job. You are doing an amazing job. I would love to see what you could do with Family Friendly Gaming as a full time job that covers all of your bills. I am praying for you guys now. I am also willing to donate gift cards if that will help. Please let me know. If you publish this in your magazine then I challenge every other reader to donate a gift card as well.

- Chuck

{Paul}: Chuck,

Thank you so much for your words of encouragement and support. Everyone here at Family Friendly Gaming greatly appreciates it. We do accept gift cards. There are a variety of different people that support us with gift cards as well. I keep local radio station having a money giving marathon. I have never wanted to do those. Plus it feels off to me when they say things like: "I wanted to give you the opportunity to support us." I have always hated having a hand out. I prefer to produce something of value and know that caring, loving people will want to provide something that helps us continue to exist. I hate the guilt tripping and brow beating that too many use. If we are used by others and they never think of helping then we store up treasures in heaven. God has been good and continues to be good to us.

It would be amazing if just 50% of our readers took you up on that challenge. Not everyone can. Not everyone is in a position to do so. I always say if we have been a blessing to you and you prayerfully consider helping that is all I ask. There are days I wish I could come home from a job, plop on the couch and zone out watching TV like so many other people tell me they do. Obedience to God is more important to me than my own comfort or enjoyment.

Greatness Personified

Your Video Game Lies book is absolutely amazing. I have never read such an amazing book on video games written by a fellow gamer before. I turned my nose at other Christian video game books because they are constantly: "Video games are evil and you are bad for playing them." Your Video Game Lies book has actual, real and true balance to it. You point out the good and you point out the bad. You give the Godly perspective that so many of my fellow gamers ignore. You show the dangers, and you show the benefits. Video Game Lies is the greatest video game related book I have ever read. I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart for writing that book. Will there be a fourth revision at some point? What is your plan for that?

BTW I absolutely love that you are selling signed copies of your books on your Store page. I bought one and could not be happier. I think I have a collectible right there. Any chance there will be a collector's edition setup and created for your books?

- Stan

{Paul}: Stan,

I am so appreciative of your words of encouragement. You made me blush. I think there are plenty of improvements I can make with a wide array of things I have written including that book. At some future date and point I would love to go back through the Video Game Lies book and add even more content. I am working on wrapping up the Family Friendly Gaming Devotional March book. I hope to have that on sale around the time this issue has been published. Maybe even before. We will see if that is too ambitious or not. I have plans for another Future Glimpses book but have not had the time for it. I will probably try to get work done on the Family Friendly Gaming Devotional April book as well.

After those projects are all done I could look at another revision of Video Game Lies. It will probably be a bit before that happens though.

On the topic of Collector's Editions of our books. I like that idea. I am just not sure what to include. Are there specific bonuses you would be interested in? The same goes for all of Family Friendly Gaming Universe. Would you buy a collector's edition of one of my books if something was included? What inclusion would you like to see? I will see what ideas come in and how feasible that would be. Maybe we could put a pre-order out on our store page so we could have them created on demand. I would hate to spend a lot of money and be stuck with all kinds of inventory.

Look BACK Family Games

There has been a lot of history made here at Family Friendly Gaming. Let us take a look at some of the historic front covers to a few of the issues in our long and storied history.

UNO Super Mario Card Game

Join Mario, Luigi, and all their friends for a game of UNO! It's the UNO you love, but this version also includes a special Mario Super Star Card that makes your character invincible. After another player plays a Draw 4 or Draw 2 card, play the Super Star Card to bounce the card power back to that player. And two customizable cards deliver even more game-changing moments and help defeat opponents! Score points by being the first to get rid of all the cards in your hand. First player or team to 500 wins. When you're down to one card, don't forget to yell "UNO!" Contains 112 cards plus instructions. For 2 to 10 players, ages 7 and older. Easy to pick up, impossible to put down.

The 112-card deck includes a Super Mario Super Star rule unique to this game. The player that draws the Super Star card becomes practically invincible! When players are down to one card, they must yell "UNO!"

This deck plays like the classic UNO card game – matching colors and numbers from players' hands to the discard pile, but with Super Mario characters on each card.

For Super Mario collectors and fans, this deck is a keeper. Enjoy the game with groups large and small, 2-10 players! Kids ages 7 years and older love playing UNO and they'll love UNO Super Mario even more!

The classic matching card game, now with a Super Mario Bros theme!

Players take turns matching one of their cards with the color or number card shown on the top of the deck.

Score points by being the first to get rid of all the cards in your hand.

First player or team to 500 wins.

Includes special Mario Super Star Card and two customizable cards.

Envy

Routinely we discuss how so many of the worldly lessons are rebellion against God. Part of the problem is too many people who call themselves Christian are not educated into what that actually means. Take envy for example. There is plenty of people streaming, on television and other entertainment that openly admit they are envious. They are not even fighting it. They are actually encouraging it. They are actually encouraging sinful behavior.

Job 5:2 Resentment kills a fool, and envy slays the simple. Do you want to be considered simple? Focusing on others and what they have does not assist you in any way, shape or form.

Many of ya'll have heard of the love chapter. You know what love is and what love isn't. When you envy you are not being loving. 1 Corinthians 13:4 Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. Anyone who is being envious is not being loving by Biblical definition. When I hear people admitting to being sinful and expecting me to celebrate it I am open, transparent, and honest. I do not join in open rebellion against God. I will not join the armies of Satan.

Envy leads to some horrible places and things for people. I am baffled anyone would want to walk that horrible path. 1 Timothy 6:3-5 If anyone teaches otherwise and does not agree to the sound instruction of our Lord Jesus Christ and to godly teaching, 4 they are conceited and understand nothing. They have an unhealthy interest in controversies and quarrels about words that result in envy, strife, malicious talk, evil suspicions 5 and constant friction between people of corrupt mind, who have been robbed of the truth and who think that godliness is a means to financial gain. Notice how you can get to envy? It can come through quarrels and controversies over words. This is one of the reasons I stick up for the traditional definitions of words and do not join in with those constantly trying to redefine words. Those trying to redefine words are trying to cause all of these different evil things.

Envy can also be a sign of other evils in your life. James 3:16 For where you have envy and selfish ambi- tion, there you find disorder and every evil practice. I do not want that in my life. Do you want it in yours? Envy is not something to aspire to. Envy is something to be avoided. Envy is bad. My suggestion is to focus on the blessings in your life. Do not focus on what others have. Be thankful for what you have. The more you focus on being thankful for you have the happier you will be. Besides many times those with more than you are miserable and have problems you do not want.

God Bless,
Paul Bury

PRAYER

Jesus,

I know that I am a sinner and need Your forgiveness. Nothing I can do of my own power will give me true joy. I believe that You died for my sins. I want to turn from my enslavement to sins, and repent of them. I now invite You to come into my heart and life. I want to trust and follow You as my personal Lord and Savior. I welcome the transforming power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Turbo Golf Racing Announced

Hugecalf Studios and publisher Secret Mode are thrilled to announce Turbo Golf Racing, which made its debut at the Future Games Show - Spring Showcase. Combining the chaos of multiplayer racing with the skill of golf, Turbo Golf Racing launches into Beta this Spring. Beta registration is now open to members of the public, and players can sign up to participate via the official website, or participate on Xbox platforms via the Xbox Insider Program.

Turbo Golf Racing is a fast-paced arcade-style sports racing game for up to eight players, all competing to see whose speed-putting skills are up to par. Racers flip, glide, and dash their turbo-charged cars down winding fairways as they strike their oversized golf balls toward the finishing cup.

“From the moment we first laid eyes on Turbo Golf Racing we were hooked by the concept,” says Paige Dolan, Greenlight Manager at Secret Mode. “Hugecalf Studios has crafted a raucous multiplayer experience like no other, and Turbo Golf Racing instantly became a daily staple of our free-time gaming sessions here in The Bunker. We’re counting down the days until the wider world can tee off with great anticipation.”

“Turbo Golf Racing is the game we’ve always dreamed of making,” says Jonny Hughes, Producer at Hugecalf Studios. “We’re incredibly proud of Turbo Golf Racing and our plans for its future, and cannot wait for players to experience it first-hand when the Beta launches this Spring.”

Turbo Golf Racing is available to wishlist now on Steam and will be available in Beta this Spring; sign-ups are available via the official website. Turbo Golf Racing will launch later in 2022 on PC, Xbox Series X|S, Xbox One and Game Pass.

Planet Zoo Wetlands Animal Pack Releases

Frontier Developments plc (AIM: FDEV) announced the release of a brand new expansion for the ultimate zoo simulation, Planet Zoo. Players can welcome wildlife from one of the richest habitats in the world with Planet Zoo: Wetlands Animal Pack, arrived on Steam for a suggested retail price of $9.99.

Planet Zoo: Wetlands Animal Pack brings eight fascinating new species to the game. Introducing the endearing Capybara, which spends much of the day wallowing in nearby pools; the Platypus, with its duck-like bill and beaver-like tail; the Asian Small Clawed Otter, who moves gracefully through the water; the aptly-named Spectacled Caiman, whose eyes peep above the water as it basks; the Nile Lechwe, whose slender hooves have adapted to life on marshy floodplains; the Wild Water Buffalo, with its formidable horns; and the Red-Crowned Crane, whose mesmerizing mating dance is a marvel to behold. Finally, the Danube Crested Newt exhibit animal, with its distinctively jagged spine and unique spotted coloring, is certain to capture the attention of zoo guests.

Players can observe new animations as their Planet Zoo: Wetlands Animal Pack arrivals settle into their habitats. From the elegant deep-water hunting of the Asian Small Clawed Otter, to the relaxing bathing habits of the Capybara, these fascinating species have a unique relationship with their marshy surroundings.

Prospective zookeepers can also put their skills to the test with a thrilling new timed scenario set in the vibrant Brazilian Pantanal region, the world's largest wetlands ecosystem. Players will be tasked with helping an animal sanctuary's rescue efforts, adopting and caring for new arrivals. And don't forget the guests, who players will need to educate and entertain to ensure the facility can truly thrive.

Alongside the pack, players will also enjoy a free base-game update, which brings with it a range of extras and enhancements, including roaming educator talks, a new 'Explore Cam' feature which allows players to experience their zoos at guest height, a color and transparency editor for exhibit water, and more.

Planet Zoo: Wetlands Animal Pack requires the Planet Zoo base game in order to download and play. Planet Zoo is available now on Steam with an RRP of £34.99 / $44.99 / €44.99, Planet Zoo Deluxe Edition RRP for £42.99 / $54.99 / €54.99 or the Planet Zoo Deluxe Upgrade Pack for $11.99.

Two Point Campus Release Date Slips

Two Point Campus™, the upcoming university management sim from Two Point Studios Limited., is coming to PC & Mac, PlayStation® 4|5, Microsoft® Xbox One, Xbox Series X|S, Xbox Game Pass for console, PC Game Pass and Nintendo Switch, but players will have to wait just a little while longer for it, as the release date for Two Point Campus moves from May 17, 2022 to August 9, 2022.

Two Point Campus is a charming management sim where players will be able to create the university of their dreams, shape the lives of their students, and manage everything in between. While the decision has been made to delay the release of Two Point Campus by a few months, the vision for the game has remained the same. In this brand-new video, the developers from Two Point Studios explain why they wanted to make Two Point Campus and discuss some of the exciting new features that players can expect in the game. They also describe how Two Point Campus has evolved from their previous game, Two Point Hospital. Check out the video to find out what the game is all about, while also enjoying some brand-new gameplay footage!

“Our ambition from the start has been to release Two Point Campus across all PC and console platforms simultaneously to the quality and standard that our community expects from us. This means we will need a little bit more time with Two Point Campus to make sure we deliver the best possible game that can be enjoyed equally on all platforms”, said Mark Webley, Game Director at Two Point Studios. “We will use these additional three months to optimize Two Point Campus for all platforms.

Further details on Two Point Campus and the decision to move the release date, can be found in this blog article. Players can pre-order the game for PC and consoles here – with the Nintendo Switch pre-purchase via the eShop to follow soon. Two Point Campus will also be available on Xbox Game Pass for console and PC Game Pass on day one. For more information about Two Point Campus click on one of their advertisements.

Sonic the Hedgehog Collectible Statues

SEGA of America has teamed up with Neamedia Icons to create a line of collectible statues. The all-new line of Sonic the Hedgehog statues stand 13-centimeters high and are available to pre-order now for €39.99 in three colors - Classic Sonic, Grey Sonic and Blue Sonic.

The Sonic the Hedgehog collectible statues are inspired by the Blue Blur's iconic early 90's aesthetic. Modeled in poses that perfectly embody Sonic's rebellious but warm character, the statues express all the key character attributes that make Sonic who he is today. With a finger raised, a sassy smirk, and red striped sneakers, this figurine was designed to be timeless, energetic, and full of style.

Retro gaming enthusiasts and fans of his modern adventures have proven that the bluest hedgehog is a lot more than a video game hero, and that he truly deserves his status of a timeless icon – and these statues are a great way for fans to celebrate the occasion.

Gigapocalypse Smashes Its Way Onto Consoles

Headup Games & Goody Gameworks are pleased to announce that retro-inspired side scrolling city-smasher Gigapocalypse is coming to PlayStation 4, Xbox One and Nintendo Switch on June 2nd.

Inspired by Kaiju monster movies like Godzilla and King Kong, as well as gaming classics like Rampage, Gigapocalypse gives players a roster of monsters, or "Gigas", to choose from as they reduce cities to rubble to the beat of a pumping heavy metal soundtrack as they create their own monster apocalypse!

With every run you undertake to try and get to each location's boss, your Giga will become more powerful and earn mutation points. Spend these points to upgrade your Giga with new mutations, skills, skins, and even up to five tiny minion pets who will accompany you on your outings of urban destruction. Take care of your Giga in Tamagotchi-style minigames and decorate your Giga's home with cool items that will improve your Giga and make them even more menacing.

Gigapocalypse offers nine monsters to choose from - three 'Old Gods', three prehistoric monstrosities and three horrors from outer space. You can take these beasts of destruction into a host of fun city locations from across multiple timelines, ranging from the Wild West to the modern day.

"It's been great to see the positive reactions to Gigapocalypse as we've added more and more to it throughout the game's time in Early Access on PC," said developer Goody Pundit. "With the many updates and improvements we've made, the game is better than ever and I hope console players are looking forward to picking a Giga and laying waste to everything in front of them!"

Cook Serve Forever Launching 2023

Vertigo Gaming Inc. today reveals its massive new culinary adventure Cook Serve Forever for release in 2023 on Steam, with other platforms and storefronts set to be announced soon!

Sephonie Launches

Analgesic Productions is excited to reveal its upcoming story-driven 3D platformer Sephonie launched on Windows PC and Mac.

Memories linger across time, deep beneath the island's surface. In this story-driven 3D platformer, explore Sephonie Island's massive cave network, and link with unidentified species using the novel Puzzle Grid system. Explore the island's depths as shipwrecked biologists Amy, Ing-wen, and Riyou, whose personal histories come to bear on the shifting spiritual landscape of the island depths.

Parkour-esque platforming
Use an acrobatic moveset to navigate lush, jade canopies and rusty sandstone spires. Fling yourself over high ledges using the satisfying Teledash Vault and deftly Wallrun across dangerous outcroppings.

Grapple through the air with the help of long-tongued Ribbats or climb tall cliffs via sticky-ridged Gripshrooms. Linking with certain creatures will grant you new abilities to reach the farthest depths of the island.

The Relaxing and Casual Puzzle Grid System

The trio must research the island's unknown creatures by Linking with them. Using the one-of-a-kind "Puzzle Grid" system, you'll rotate and place a series of multi-colored pieces onto the board to create large, same-colored islands. Each creature has different challenges to overcome!

There's no 'right' solution to Linking; use your intuition to react to the creature's moves and what appears on the board, and you will soon be on your way to success!

A Research Trip Gone Awry

In the near future, three biologists are on a joint mission to use their state-of-the-art ONYX implants to research the creatures of the uninhabited Sephonie Island. But as they approach the island, a sudden storm leaves them shipwrecked.

Amy Lim, Taiwanese-American and bold leader, hails from the midwestern USA town of Bloomington. Riyou Hayashi, an analytically-minded Japanese-Taiwanese researcher, calls the bustling Tokyo his home. And Ing-wen Lin, a kind and considerate Taiwanese scientist, lives in Taipei.

The trio will find their motivations and loyalties put to the test as they navigate Sephonie's caverns, facing not only physical challenges but also their deepest memories and dreams. As they grow more intimate with each other and the island, an ancient force, brewing deep in the island's abyss, may threaten their newfound relationship, and the world...

Features

A deep, emotional story about the close bonds of a trio, the priorities of nations, and the delicate connection of humans and nature.

A human experience crafted entirely by the IGF Grand Prize-nominated duo of Marina Kittaka and Melos Han-Tani, behind works such as Anodyne 1 & 2, Even the Ocean, and All Our Asias.

Master a parkour-esque moveset to sprint, wallrun, jump, and fling yourself through Sephonie Island's rocky and physical caverns!

A novel and accessible Puzzle Grid system that will stretch your brain in fun ways.

A screenshot mode that lets you pose the characters and creatures you meet in the game, and then take fun photos!

A beautiful and varied cave system filled with all manner of large and surprising creatures, visually brought to life by Marina Kittaka.

A lush, melodic and ambient soundtrack by Melos Han-Tani.

The postgame "Bubble Adventure" and fiendish hidden items provide a fun challenge for advanced spelunkers.

We Would Play That!

REVIEWS

There are all kinds of cool family friendly video game ideas out there. This column features ideas of video games we would play. We hope games like these are created in the near future. Can you make it happen?

Some days the struggle is real. Have you ever had some of those days? At this point it is starting to feel like the entire year is trudging through a swamp when our feet sink into the mud with each and every step. We expect to run into an alligator or some poisonous snake at any moment. There are plenty of parkour video games on the market. There are plenty of extremely difficult video games on the market. What about a video game where it feels like trudging through tough times? Would you even want to play such a game and see if you have the perseverance to survive? We get hills and we get valleys in life. There are plenty of video games that help us deal with the mountain tops. What about video games that deal with methodically working through the valleys? What about a video game that helps people cope with extended bad times?

In a plethora of conversations we have had there is a theme from some elderly people. They see family and friends die again and again. Some felt a little left behind as they watch so many others pass away. They go to funeral after funeral. That concept would fit the theme for a video game being discussed in this column. Imagine dealing with the emotions of finding out family members and friends are dropping like flies. Going to funeral after funeral. It does sound a bit on the morbid side. How would you cope playing a game like that? What concepts would you come up with to find a way to get positive again? Would you look forward to the end of this life and spending eternity with God in heaven? Would you look forward to seeing friends and family in heaven? Would you look forward to bowing in front of Jesus Christ and thanking Him for saving your eternal soul? Would you look forward to opportunities to witness to others and show them they have nothing to be afraid of when it comes to death? How would you face that challenge? It could prepare you for what comes in your future.

Can you see the potential in such a video game idea? Would you be strong enough to play such a game? Would you be willing to face this kind of very important life issue? Would this give you more empathy for your elders? How could such a video game improve your life until you reach that point?

Welcome to our reviews section. We have a couple of rules when it comes to our reviews. The reviewer must give an honest accounting as to why he/she liked or disliked something. No fanboy reviews allowed here, or at the very least they are discouraged (after all everyone has their own personal biases, likes, and dislikes). Everyone also has different tolerances, and weaknesses - we strive to keep that in mind in our reviews. We have been burned ourselves by reviews saying a certain game is great, only to be greatly offended by that game. Reviewers must be kind in their reviews. A game may be horrible, but there is no need to degrade the developer, publisher, artists, etc. There is also no need for name calling.

We review video games on five separate criteria: graphics, sound, replay/extras, gameplay, and family friendly factor. Review scale can be found here. The editor in chief coordinates reviews to have as much cohesion as possible. We are very open about the way we review video games. Each section starts with a 75 score, and can earn or lose points based on the content of the game, using our grading scale (found on the website).

Parents, please do not take any of our reviews as gospel. Different people are offended by different things. We work hard here at Family Friendly Gaming to discern the good from the bad in the teachings of each different video game. What may seem harmless to our reviewer(s), could be a big deal to you. We encourage you to spend time with your children and investigate each video game yourself. Each review is written with you in mind, and we try to mention each problem we find. We are not perfect, and miss things from time to time - just as the ESRB does. The ESRB rating is merely a start, and since they ignore many of the moral and spiritual factors important to parents all across America, we do our small part to fill that huge void. We are a small ministry and your prayers are so very important to us.

Questions, suggestions, comments, or got a game you would like for us to review? Then please email us at: Gamereviews@familyfriendlygaming.com.

1 Corinthians 15:55-57

55 "Where, O death, is your victory?
Where, O death, is your sting?"

56 The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law.
57 But thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

L.O.L. Surprise! Movie Night

SCORE: 70

L.O.L. Surprise! Movie Night is a definite step up from L.O.L. Surprise! Remix We Rule the World. Both games are on the Nintendo Switch. Both games use dolls from the L.O.L. Surprise! franchise. We were offered a reviewable copy of the PR and Marketing firm for both games. The PR and Marketing firm ghosted us after we accepted a reviewable copy and gave them all of our information. We bought copies of both games ourselves after their unprofessional behavior. L.O.L. Surprise! Movie Night has girls take on the role of a new actress trying to make it in L.O.L. Ville. This is done by playing mini games.

L.O.L. Surprise! Movie Night crashed twice on me in the four and a half hours it took me to beat the game. Girls can keep playing after beating the game. They can then get better friendships with the different characters in the game. The story follows our rise and winning awards in each of the different categories. There are charms that come with the video game as well. There are six charms that are available. The only way to get all six is to purchase the game six times and hope you get a different charm each time. I see very few people trying to collect all these charms.

L.O.L. Surprise! Movie Night looks okay although the dolls look a bit strange to me. The camera loves to swing around on the player when starting out, and even walking to certain places. Thankfully the areas in L.O.L. Surprise! Movie Night are pretty small. Certain mini games can be obnoxious. For example we must place items for upcoming scenes. We are given no clue what they

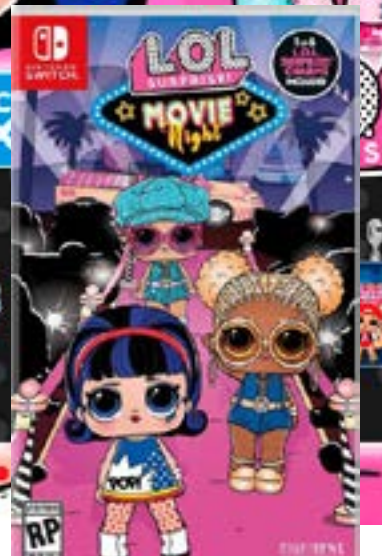

Girls can change the look and style of their doll in L.O.L. Surprise! Movie Night. There is a shop to buy more hair, clothing, and accessories. The music within L.O.L. Surprise! Movie Night is pleasant albeit a bit on the low side. There are always on screen directions on what to do next written in this video game. - Paul want and feedback is given out so late that it can be difficult to place the right things. It is a constant guessing game. The memorization game gets lengthy and I had to write down the different emojis to try and succeed.

The girls in L.O.L. Surprise! Movie Night are very positive, helpful and uplifting. L.O.L. Surprise! Movie Night teaches girls to be themselves and not someone else. The main character channellings Glamour Queen a bit too much instead of her own style. That lessons is drilled into the players in L.O.L. Surprise! Movie Night. Certain animations are reused like at the awards show. Girls can also decorate a house with furniture that is earned in the game.

Kirby and the Forgotten Land

SCORE: 70

I am very thankful God provided the money for us to purchase Kirby and the Forgotten Land. Kirby and the Forgotten Land is being marketed as a 3D Kirby video game. There are definitely many 3D elements within Kirby and the Forgotten Land. This Nintendo Switch video game is not open world. Many of the 3D areas are small and limited. We go through multiple areas in each level of Kirby and the Forgotten Land. There are also really small levels to earn special coins.

There are two kinds of currency within Kirby and the Forgotten Land. There are Star Coins that are plentiful and then Rare Stones. Those are both used to upgrade the copy abilities Kirby earns by sucking in certain enemies. As we free Waddle Dees we unlock more things to do in the town. There are also collectibles that can be found and purchased within Kirby and the Forgotten Land if you are interested in them. Blue-prints are also found to improve the copy abilities.

Kirby and the Forgotten Land looks good and it sounds good. There is action adventure violence as we trash a variety of enemies. There are different goals to achieve in each of the levels in Kirby and the Forgotten Land. Maybe beat the boss with this certain ability, or eat three ice cream cones for example. As the copy abilities are improved Kirby and the Forgotten Land tells you that you are evolving them. Those abilities do get more powerful but not much beyond that - aside from how they look. There are numerous secrets that can be discovered in Kirby and the Forgotten Land.

If you watched any of the live streams or videos of Kirby and the Forgotten Land then you know it took me around seven hours to eight hours to complete. I did not unlock every powered up ability because it would have required some Star Coin grinding. Kirby and the Forgotten Land felt short unless you want to find every Waddle Dee and unlock every ability. I did not really see the point in any of those things. After beating Kirby and the Forgotten Land there is a secret world that can be unlocked and played. Once I get credits I feel the game is done and did not continue with it after that point. I found Kirby and the Forgotten Land to be pretty limited and predictable. I was expecting a Breath of the Wild open world personally. I value Kirby and the Forgotten Land at $20-$30. - Paul

MLB The Show 22

SCORE: 82

This year we got a free copy of MLB The Show 22 on Xbox Game Pass. My dad still plans on purchasing a physical copy on the PS5 at some future date. Keep your eyes peeled for that in one of our FFG Haul live streams. We had fun streaming MLB The Show 22 on our Twitch channel. That is being converted into a video to put on our video sites. There is a lot of impressive stuff in MLB The Show 22. Families can enjoy modes like Road to the Show, Diamond Dynasty, March to October, and Franchise within MLB The Show 22.

There are online and offline game modes in MLB The Show 22. It is cool that MLB The Show 22 is on multiple different systems. To me MLB The Show 22 is better than MLB The Show 21. I see this game as a step up. There still are some issues and problems with MLB The Show 22 though. Take for example the game I played with my dad on Twitch. He would get perfect timing and fly out. I would get perfect timing and get home runs. Why are there different results on fast balls hit perfectly right up the middle by home run hitters? I could not figure that out. I really hope there is not some lame momentum meter in MLB The Show 22.

MLB The Show 22 looks great and it sounds good too. There is offensive music within MLB The Show 22. Thankfully families can go into settings to turn it off. Streamers also need to turn off music to avoid getting into trouble with the ultra filthy rich music companies. At this point why even include the music? It is being turned off and ignored. Sort of how the PR and Marketing people treat Family Friendly Gaming. They have no professionalism and ignore all of our journalist queries. They make all of Sony look horrible.

There are on screen displays to help players in fielding. With some experimentation we were able to figure out how to steal bases in MLB The Show 22. Hopefully MLB The Show 22 will keep my interest longer than MLB The Show 21 did last year. Errors seemed really random in MLB The Show 22. I am not clear why they happened at certain times. I like how MLB The Show 22 lets you know that a pitcher is getting tired. I have played enough baseball video games to know when to start to warm up a pitcher in the bullpen. MLB The Show 22 keeps a lot of things from previous years the same. I had some fun playing MLB The Show 22.

Tales of Arise

I have played the Tales video games for some time now. I am very thankful I had the money to purchase Tales of Arise on the PS5. No clue what was going on with the PR and Marketing for this game. They remind me of ostriches that stick their heads in the sand whenever we communicate with them. Bandai Namco Entertainment claimed Tales of Arise would deal with more mature issues and themes. Death is pretty constant in Tales of Arise.

The issues families will have with Tales of Arise are blood, violence, lack of attire, enticement to lust, bad language, false gods, and more. Some of the characters within Tales of Arise are more complex than ones from previous Tales video games. The Renan conquered the Dahnan three centuries ago. We take the role of Alphen who feels no pain and has a mask on his head with no memory. Alphen meets up with Shionne who wants to conquer all the Renan lords. They team up to enlist this goal since it also frees the Dahnan.

Multiple difficulty settings can be chosen and there is a nice healthy amount of skills that can be learned for each character in Tales of Arise. There is also attire choices that can be worn thanks to owls we find along the way. Slavery is a major part of Tales of Arise. Ultimately it is about liberating the slaves from their oppressors. You can apply this a plethora of ways to our world and our lives. I will not delve into that though.

Enemies are seen so you know what you will battle and when once you run into them. We then transition into a battle screen where the special skills are generally the only thing that work well. The normal attack in Tales of Arise is about worthless. There are also more super powered attacks that can be used when they charge up. Two characters can work together and launch a powerful skill attack on the enemies (usually when their health is really low). Collecting items will allow you to improve your weapons into something more powerful. Armor is found and bought. Accessories can be crafted.

I have enjoyed streaming Tales of Arise on Twitch and converting those streams into videos for our video sites. Many of the videos can be seen on our website as well. Tales of Arise looks nice and it sounds good. There is plenty of emotion in this game. The story felt really predictable and boring to me.

SCORE: 50

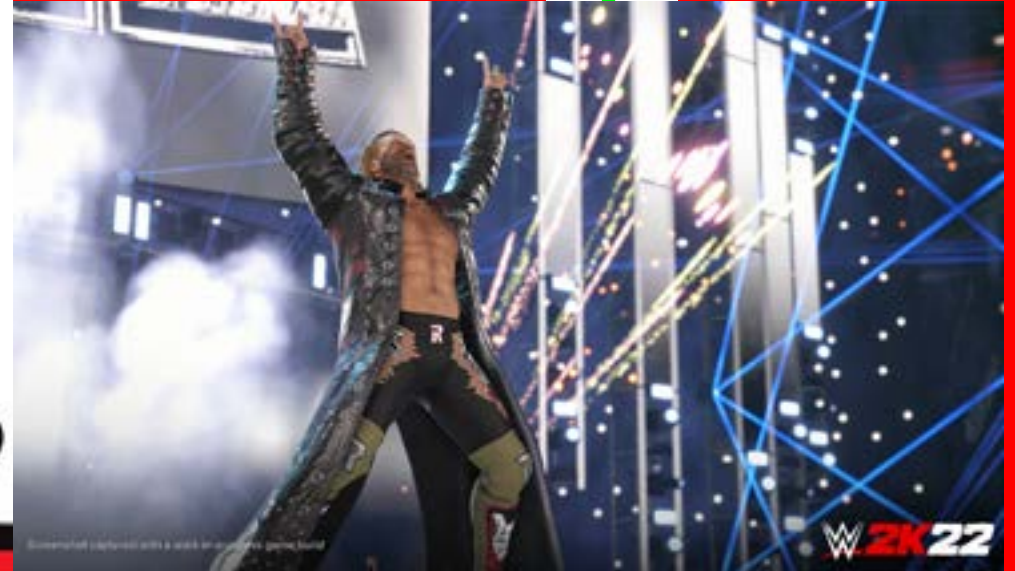

I am very thankful my dad had the financial resources to purchase WWE 2K22 on the Xbox One. It would have been ten dollars more expensive to get the Xbox Series X or PS5 version at the time of the purchase. Why spend the extra money for a game that has historically had all kinds of problems? That was how all of us here at Family Friendly Gaming looked at it. Plus the PR and Marketing could have sent us a copy of the game if they put their best foot forward to Family Friendly Gaming Universe. They know we call them exactly how we see them.

The glitches and horrible hair/beards really stick out in WWE 2K22 for me. My dad and I did a live stream of WWE 2K22 and we showed off numerous glitches in one hour. How are these games so glitchy so many years later? WWE 2K22 supposedly went back to older retro controls but we found the same problems. The ladder mini game is still lame. The graphical glitches persist. We can hit the referee now but, really spend more time needing the referee to count. Button mashers can never be pinned or submitted. Matches could take forever thanks to how easy it is to get back up (i.e. last man standing).

Too many characters in WWE 2K22 are behind pay gates. Half of the characters seem to be women now. I have zero interest in female wrestling. That is one of the reasons we featured athlete. You can play the important moments of his career. I like Rey and I have no interest of doing that. Do you?

stopped paying for the WWE Network. We do not want to financially support their irrational push of female wrestlers on us. Put it on its own show and see if it actually draws. I suspect it would not.

The issues families will have with WWE 2K22 are violence, blood, lack of attire, enticement to lust, bad language, and more. The obnoxious reversal system continues. We could constantly press Y to reverse reversals to a crazy point. Animations take a long time in WWE 2K22. I noticed some of the same fans being re-used in WWE 2K22 over and over again. The computer AI makes little sense. We pointed this out in the Royale Rumble match we played.

WWE 2K22 is a glitchy ugly mess that expects even more money to play all of the cool wrestlers. Rey Mysterio is the

SCORE: 69

By reading the manga for Dr. Stone 9 I am now almost caught up with where I left off watching the anime. Dr. Stone 9 starts off with Chrome as a captive and working on planning his escape. We then move onto the Kingdom of Science fighting to take over the miracle cure cave and thus ultimately winning the war. We learn about Hyoga the second in charge behind Tsukasa. Dr. Stone 9 has quite the cliff hanger ending. I mean that literally and figuratively. It is quite the shocking moment within Dr. Stone 9 too. There are plenty of secrets revealed within Dr. Stone 9.

The issues families will have with Dr. Stone 9 are violence, blood, bad language, lack of attire, enticement to lust, deceit, and more. The Kingdom of Science comes up with some pretty impressive weapons in Dr. Stone 9. The tank and dynamite are two that really stick out to me. Those two can do some serious damage. There is of course a limit to how much they can create in Dr. Stone 9. They do not have the industry for war that we do.

The war in Dr. Stone 9 perplexes me. No one dies in Dr. Stone 9. What kind of war is there without any death whatsoever? SPOILER ALERT! Tsukasa becomes a much more sympathetic figure in Dr. Stone 9. Even as he almost winds up winning the war. The strategy of the kingdom of science is brilliant within Dr. Stone 9. This entire arc is almost entirely wrapped up. Just a little bit more to go. Dr. Stone 9 teaches an interesting lesson. It is not science or strength. It is science and strength.

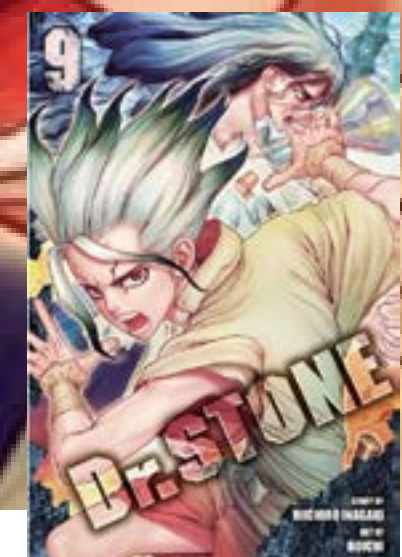

That should explain where Dr. Stone 9 goes in terms of the storyline.

Senku is shown as brilliant within Dr. Stone 9. Chrome is no slouch either and he is started to come into his own in Dr. Stone 9. In fact Chrome winds up saving the day thanks to his scavenging techniques. I will continue this manga for at least one more book. I will see after that. I have been enjoying Dr. Stone and want to know where it goes from here.

Batwoman The Complete Second Season

SCORE: 30

I am thankful I had the money to purchase Cobra Kai Season 2. This show has gotten so interesting that I purchased Cobra Kai Season 3 on DVD. Yes I know I can see it on Netflix. I always prefer the physical copy version of any form of entertainment. This show really escalated in the tenth and final episode. It started fast and got more intense until the end.

and steals students after Miyagi-Dojo is vandalized. He even tries to pick a fight with Johnny. His students pick up on this and do the same. For example Chris attacks an opponent with a book after losing a fight. Cobra Kai Season 2 makes a big deal out of Tory using spikes in a fight but Miyagi-Do students and their sensei are no better.

The issues families will have with Cobra Kai Season 2 are bad language, blood, theft, violence, promotion of sexual deviancy and more. There is a real cringe moment that everyone was like - we do not need that. Hawk tries to get back with his girlfriend and it turns into a vomit inducing moment. There is a very violent accident near the end of Cobra Kai Season 2 as well. SPOILER ALERT! A huge brawl breaks out at the school.

Johnny offers Kreese redemption in Cobra Kai Season 2. Sadly it winds up biting him in the end. Kreese is true scum in Cobra Kai Season 2. Johnny and Daniel can come to some mutual understanding here and there in Cobra Kai Season 2. There is an important les-

SPOILER ALERT! In the last episode of Cobra Kai Season 2 Robby (Johnny's son) injures Miguel (Johnny's best student) really bad from a fall from a balcony. This is right after Miguel shows Robby mercy and apologies for kissing his ex-girlfriend Samantha. Samantha and Robby are dating at this time. Miguel is dating Tory (Miguel's current girlfriend). Do you see how convoluted it gets? - Paul

Cobra Kai Season 2 likes to talk about the competition between Johnny and Daniel. Thing is Daniel never lives up to his own teachings. He goes sons taught in Cobra Kai Season 2. That lesson is that showing mercy to an opponent is honorable but a mistake. This lesson is drilled into the viewer over and over again.

Hawk is shown as a bully at times in Cobra Kai Season 2. I noticed Demetri is constantly trying to pick a fight with Hawk. In many ways Demetri and Hawk remind me of Daniel and Johnny from the Karate Kid movie. I really hope Hawk will finally shut up Demetri's hateful mouth at some point in the future. There is plenty of humor within Cobra Kai Season 2. The characters have really grown in their roles and are very interesting.

I am so glad I was able to trudge through Batwoman The Complete Second Season on DVD. This show is cringe worthy from start to finish. The constant encouragement to openly rebel against God in Batwoman The Complete Second Season is really draining. There was also some drama surrounding the show. The actress that played Batwoman in season one left. All kinds of stories on it. She was replaced by a black woman in Batwoman The Complete Second Season.

shut down in a radical far left victory. Sadly Batwoman The Complete Second Season does not deal in reality where crime skyrockets when the police are defunded or removed from neighborhoods. Batwoman The Complete Second Season is fantasy after all. I just wish they would show the consequences of their really bad ideas.

Due to the racial redefinition and how BLM Batwoman The Complete Second Season actually is a lot of people have started calling her Blackwoman instead of Batwoman. The addition of Batwing near the end of this season does not help that perception. SPOILER ALERT! The Crows are even

The issues families will have with Batwoman The Complete Second Season are sexual deviancy, bad language, violence, blood, lack of attire, enticement to lust, CRT, racism, lies, radical far left propaganda, and more. The police are all corrupt and oppressing black people in Batwoman The Complete Second Season. White people are all racist, and even horrible villains were mistreated and not responsible for their crimes.

Batwoman The Complete Second Season goes back and forth on whether Kate Kane is alive or dead. Brainwashing is easy in Batwoman The Complete Second Season. To be fair some of the people brainwashed only needed a really small brush. The Desert Rose contains a miracle cure that can save anyone from anything. It is held by a Circe Sionis on an island. Black Mask takes a major role in Batwoman The Complete Second Season. At times there feels like there are more sexually deviant characters in Batwoman The Complete Second Season than regular normal ones. Only radical far leftists will enjoy this show. - Paul

I am very thankful I had the money to purchase the Jaleco Collection 1 on the Evercade systems. There are ten games that come on the Jaleco Collection 1 cartridge. The ten games are Astyanax, Bases Loaded, Brawl Brothers, City Connection, Earth Defense Force, Operation Logic Bomb, Rival Turf, Super Goal 2, The Ignition Factor, and Totally Rad. Rival Turf is another Final Fight like video game. Super Goal 2 is a soccer video game. The Ignition Factor is a fire fighter video game with some story in it. Totally Rad is a side scrolling action adventure shooter.

Astyanax is a side scrolling 2D action adventure game where we must fight our way through a plethora of characters. Bases Loaded is a baseball video game. Brawl Brothers is a side scrolling with a bit of depth fighter like Final Fight. City Connection is a 2D side scrolling car video game where we

There are a wide array of different games within Jaleco Collection 1. I really like the sports games in Jaleco Collection 1. The Ignition Factor is a really neat video game idea. The same goes for City Connection. City Connection is one of those really cool retro video game. Bases Loaded can be challenging until players learn all of the nuances of the game. I liked Super Goal 2 a little bit better. Plus that soccer game looks much better as well. There are some violent video games included within Jaleco Collection 1.

Half of the video games on the Jaleco Collection 1 are definitely good games for families. The others would be in the E10+ to the T range in terms of ratings if they had been rated. The music in Jaleco Collection 1 ranges just like the graphics. I did enjoy a lot of the music in Jaleco Collection 1 personally. I hope there are more games like Jaleco Collection 1 released in the near future. I know Jaleco made some other wonderful video games in the past. It was a real blast for me to play and review the games on the Jaleco Collection 1 cartridge. I hope to video record these games at some future date.

I am very thankful I had the money to purchase Hot Wheels Stunt Track Driver on the Gameboy Color. I had no idea what I would find when I played this hand held racing video game. The graphics are decent for the power of the hand held it happened to be on. We see the cars and tracks from a 2D side ways view. It works better than I could have expected actually. The race tracks are short in Hot Wheels Stunt Track Driver which helps with a hand held video game.

The music in Hot Wheels Stunt Track Driver annoyed me greatly. I asked some others what their opinion was and they found the music to be very grating in Hot Wheels Stunt Track Driver. I had to turn the volume way down because the music was giving me a headache. I am not sure why this kind of music was chosen but it does not help this hand held racing video game in any way, shape or form.

I counted four cars and three race tracks when I played Hot Wheels Stunt Track Driver. The box claims there are five different cars within Hot Wheels Stunt Track Driver. Maybe one is unlockable or something. The racing action in Hot Wheels Stunt Track Driver is actually really lame.

We have all these jumps to go over in the race tracks. While we are in the air we must do tricks to go faster. The more tricks the faster you will go. It is pretty easy to crash after doing a trick as well. Which will slow you down. The only way to compete with the computer racers is to do all these tricks.

The modes within Hot Wheels Stunt Track Driver are Tournament, Single Race, Two Player, Password and Options. I lost over and over again in Hot Wheels Stunt Track Driver. I did not really have much fun playing Hot Wheels Stunt Track Driver on the Gameboy Color. I guess since there is so little content the difficulty was set pretty high. Getting third place feels okay until you realize there are only three cars racing on these tracks in Hot Wheels Stunt Track Driver. This Gameboy Color game is an interesting idea that could have been implemented a little bit better. Pass on Hot Wheels Stunt Track Driver unless you like losing.
